Northwestern University

¶ Northwestern, the largest University of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and one of the six largest in the country, is one of the few that recognize their church connection.

¶ The University places character building before utilitarianism, and while in sympathy with all advances in education, holds to conservative ideals that characterize the older colleges of the country.

¶ Location means much to the University. Evanston, twelve miles from Chicago, and free of saloons and factories, is an ideal college town. The court, clinic, and hospital facilities afforded by Chicago guarantee the professional departments an efficiency that cannot be excelled.

¶ An endowment and property of $8,000,000 enable the University to offer superior equipment.

¶ The University maintains a COLLEGE of LIBERAL ARTS, SCHOOLS of MEDICINE, LAW, PHARMACY, DENTISTRY, MUSIC, and ACADEMIES at Evanston, Elgin and Onarga. A School of Engineering will be established.

¶ GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE and the CUMNOCK SCHOOL of ORATORY are in close co-operation.

¶ Address inquiries to the President's Secretary, 87 Lake Street, Chicago.

Evanston and Chicago

For the Dyspeptic

Half a teaspoon of HORSFORD'S Acid Phosphate in half a glass of water after meals gives perfect digestion.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate cures nervous and sick headache, the sense of oppression, distress and "all gone" feeling. It reaches forms of Dyspepsia and Nervous troubles that no other medicine seems to touch.

A Tonic for Mental Nervous and Physical Weakness.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

If your druggist can't supply you, send 25 cents to RUMFORD CHEMICAL WORKS, Providence, R. I., for sample bottle, postage paid.

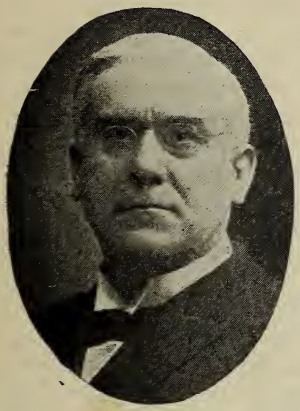
REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS

FT. WAYNE DISTRICT.

C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder.



Dear Bishop and Brethren—The year now closing has been one of faithful and earnest effort upon the part of the pastors of Fort Wayne District. All our people have right royally supported and sustained the good men sent by the Bishop, last year, to be their shepherds and pastors.

Geneva Circuit was "left to be supplied." It is a Charge with five appointments, $459 salary and no parsonage. We had some difficulty to find a pastor for this rather hard field. But the days of Christian heroism and sacrifice are not past. I found a brother—a local preacher—who was working for $1,200 a year, who said: "I desire to preach and enter the active ministry." He was willing to leave his pleasant employment and take this work. After consenting, and before he had moved to the charge, he received a written offer of five dollars per day, or fifteen hundred dollars per year, from a firm in Pennsylvania who desired his services. At this time his little child became very ill, and in a few days it was called away by death. They laid the remains of their precious child to rest, and then, with tear-stained cheeks, turned their faces up toward heaven and prayed for help as they started into the itinerancy to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to men. There could be only one outcome to such consecration and sacrifice and faith. They have had good success, and the people on Geneva Circuit desire the return of this man and his wife for another year.

In the early part of last September, Rev. J. M. Canse, of Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, was transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, in the State of Washington, and stationed in University Park Church at Seattle, with a salary of $1,800 and parsonage.

Rev. L. M. Edwards, of Westfield, was secured as pastor for the vacant Charge at Simpson. He has pleased all his parishioners, and just closed a gracious revival with one hundred conversions. The lot purchased a little while ago for the new church building was sold at a good advance, and a new site secured on which is a fine, modern house. It will be used for a parsonage. Negotiations are now in progress for the sale of the old parsonage and church property. It is expected that the new building, so long desired and prayed for, and so greatly needed, will be commenced during the coming year. Rev. H. H. Hocker, of Bluffton Circuit, was sent to Westfield, and Ross W. Stokes, a local preacher, who was at that time in college, was appointed to the Bluffton Circuit as a supply.

Rev. H. S. Nickerson, of St. Paul, Fort Wayne, was changed to Fairmount, Ind., by the Bishop, January 1st, and Rev. C. M. Hobbs, of Roanoke, Ind., was appointed to St. Paul. We were pleased to have these brethern get these deserved promotions during the mid-year. The work in the Charges from which they were taken has gone right on without stop or loss. The people were sorry to lose their pastors, but like good, loyal Christians they rallied around their new pastors and gave them an earnest, enthusiastic support, which helped to victory.

Four of our pastors were happily married during the year. Rev. W. E. McCarty, R. W. Stokes, J. S. Newcombe and M. C. Pittinger. The people will all rejoice when the only remaining bachelor, Rev. ———— shall find an helpmate to assist him in the great work he always does for the Lord.

Rev. W. H. Daniel, D. D., my predecessor in office on the District, who was widely known, and loved, and honored, was called from labor to reward in early February. He was a great and good man. Suitable memoirs wil be read at the Memorial Service at this Conference, and will also be published in the Conference Minutes.

Two weeks ago the parsonage home at First Church, Fort Wayne, was sadly bereft. Mary, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Rowand, a dear little girl of seven summers, was called to heaven. She was a beautiful child and loved by all the people.

The parents in the parsonage homes at Bobo, Woodburn and Simpson Churches have been made happy because of the birth of dear little babes in the homes during the year.

IMPROVEMENTS.

We have 95 churches in the district, valued at $511,800. Thirty parsonages, valued at $84,600. $10.920 have been put into improvements on churches, and $4,100 on parsonages. At Angola a new organ has been placed in the church for $3,000, and all old debts have been paid. At Bluffton $1,350 was expended on repairs on the church, and the parsonage was made one of the finest and handsomest in the Conference at a cost of $3,000. Extensive repairs have been made at Ossian, Portland, Geneva Circuit, First Church and St. Paul, Fort Wayne. Good improvements have been made in several other charges, both on church and parsonage property.

$1,000 of indebtedness has been paid at Montpelier; $475 at Angola; $456 at New Haven; $350 at Trinity; $400 at Bobo; $350 at Orland; $200 each at Ossian and Fremont; and small sums at eight other charges.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES AND AUXILIARIES.

We have 96 Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 1,511 officers and teachers and 12,752 scholars. A gain of 365 during the year. Our own literature is used in our schools.

There are 3,898 members in our Epworth Leagues. Hundreds of our young people in the Sunday Schools and Leagues were converted and united with the church during the revival campaign of the fall and winter.

We have 48 Ladies' Aid Societies, with a large membership. Some of the most effective and useful are in the country appointments, where they are a religious, as well as social, force and power for the Lord and His Church.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, with their Children's and Young Ladies' Auxiliaries, are doing a most excellent work in disseminating knowledge about the Mission Fields—giving inspiring facts and figures about the work done and the victories won. They are helping our people to greater giving in every Charge where organized. The Foreign Society has raised $2,270 this year, a gain of $235.

DISTRICT MEETINGS.

In June our District Epworth League Convention was held in Montpelier. Our enthusiastic Epworthians came by the hundreds to one of the best gath[illegible]ings ever held in the District. The delegates pledged $1,350 toward the support of Rev. D. O. Ernsberger's District in the South India Conference.

In the last week of September and the first week in October, we held our One-Day Missionary Conventions in each Charge. The District was divided into four divisions, and a president appointed for each, who had charge of the meetings. Four conventions were held in different portions of the District on the same day.

Our pastors gave fine addresses and made strong appeals to our churches for Missions, Church Extension, Education, The Hospital, Old People's Home, and for all the Benevolent interests of the Church. The Claim for Conference Claimants was especially emphasized.

Our District Conference was held in Decatur, March 1, 2 and 3. The good people of that splendid city entertained us royally. Their hospitality was free and unbounded. Our pastors and local preachers, exhorters, District stewards, Sunday School superintendents, Epworth League presidents, class leaders, presidents of Ladies' Aid and Woman's Missionary societies were present. The average attendance was large. Over a thousand were present to hear Bishop Vincent and Dr. Hughes. Bishop Vincent publicly declared that "it was the most inspiring gathering he had attended since his retirement from active work, four years ago."

TEMPERANCE.

Very aggressive work has been done by our preachers and people, in conjunction with like work from hosts of others, to drive the saloon out from parts of the District. Many townships have successfully remonstrated the saloons out. In these townships are a number of villages and towns. Three cities—Garrett, Auburn and Bluffton—have gone dry, and will be without licensed saloons. The fight is on; the lines are being drawn; the tide is rising; the clans are gathering, and we are buckling on our swords for the battle for complete prohibition in the entire State within the next four years.

BENEVOLENCES.

Despite the money panic, and the failure of the corn crop in most parts of the District, our benevolent collections will be in advance of last year. We will have $5,274 for Foreign Missions, and $3,923 for Home Missions and Church Extension, or a little more than $9,000 for both Missionary societies. Our other collections will also be in advance of last year. We have given especial attention to the claim of Conference Claimants. Our deficiency last year was the smallest of any District in the Conference. Our contribution for this fund will be $150 more than last year.

I pray that the time may soon come when the Conference Stewards can safely put the Basis for Full Support at, at least, $500 for our Veterans, and that every dollar of it shall be fully paid. This year our Great Book Concern has given us a larger dividend; the Preachers' Aid Society will turn over a larger sum for distribution; our collections for this Claim ought to help us to reach the sum of $500 for these devoted men, who gave their strength and best years to the work of the ministry. There was an increase of over $2,000 in amount of pastors' salaries this year, and all the salaries will be paid in full.

REVIVALS.

The revival spirit has been with us during all the year. Our pastors are evangelistic. One pastor said to me: "I feel ashamed and condemned if I do not find some person each week inquiring the way to the Lord. I am having conversions, sometimes one and sometimes more, each week for Christ." Addresses on "Personal and Everyday Evangelism," and kindred themes, were given in the Quarterly Conferences. Laymen were chosen and made most of these addresses. The net gain in full membership will be 502. The pastors report 1,336 conversions. Ossian had 185; Wayne Street, 121; Simpson, 102; First Church, Fort Wayne, 75; Fremont, 75; York and Bluffton Circuits, 58 each; Monroeville, 55; Monroe, 52; Leo, 44; Poneto, 36; New Haven and Garrett, each 34; Montpelier, 32; Decatur, 30; Orland, 27; Angola, 25; Pennville, 24; Hoagland, 23; Trinity, 22; St. Paul, 20; and from 10 to 15 in Portland, Bluffton, Auburn, Woodburn, Harlem, Huntertown, Oak Grove, Geneva and Fort Wayne Circuits. At one appointment on the Leo Charge the pastor was not having his usual success in the revival effort. He said to his congregation there. Your former pastor, who had given you faithful service, you let go away without his salary being paid in full. You were able to pay him, but you did not. How do you expect a righteous God to hear your prayers and answer them, when you are so unrighteous and positively dishonest? In five minutes' time I want to have you give me the $35 due the former pastor to pay your debt to him, and then I am sure God can and will hear us and bless us." He got $40 in less than five minutes, and a gracious revival followed.

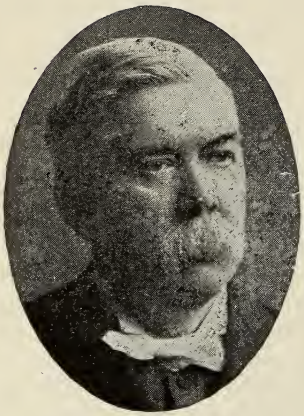
In the revival at Ossian, conducted by the pastor, more than fifty young men were converted and united with the church. As one result of the gracious work wrought in the hearts of our people many have become "tithers," and many more are studying the subject of systematic giving. There is an increase in prayer meeting attendance, and in every part and department of church work. It has been a year of sacrifice and toil, and joy and victory. Ours is not a dying church. Thousands have been added to the membership of the Church in the District in the last four years. We have more than doubled our giving for the benevolences in this time. Our people stand stronger for Christ and right and righteousness than ever before. Oh, no; ours is not a dead church. If the writer of an article, published in a recent issue of a church paper, who declared "that the Church of Christ was dying out where he lived and in the world," as he saw it, I say could he hear the prayers and testimonies of our people which find expression in deeds of love to men; in efforts for their salvation; in increased liberality upon the part of our consecrated laymen, and see the sacrifices and toils of our preachers and their families, it would change this cry of woe to a note vibrant with joy and triumph. If the poor, dear souls who live in ecclesiastical vinegar barrels, and talk in sepulchral tones about the "dead church," could get one good view of last year's work done by the church in Ft. Wayne District, they would quit whining and get out of their sour quarters, and move on to Honey Dew avenue, where the Son shines and all hearts are achant with hope, and joy, and victory.

GOSHEN DISTRICT.

H. W. Bennett, Presiding Elder.



Bishop and Brethern—The Goshen District embraces three whole counties and parts of four other counties. The estimated population of the District is 145,000. In this territory there are small towns, several with a population of 1,000 and upward, and four cities, having each over 5,000 inhabitants.

There are eighty churches and preaching places, most of them being in rural places. Our pastors minister to about 10,000 Methodists, besides many other people.

The District is divided into thirty-seven charges, sixteen of which are called stations, and twenty-one circuits.

There are twelve retired preachers, otherwise called superannuates and supernumeraries, thirty-three members of the Conference appointed as pastors, thirty local preachers, four of which have been supplying as pastors, four exhorters, and about 750 officials in this District.

Bishop McDowell appointed thirty-three pastors to the charges, and left four to be supplied. All the appointees went cheerfully to their work and were cordially received. They have worked faithfully, and their reports will show with a good degree of success.

Sickness in several parsonages, and epidemics of smallpox, diphtheria, measles and scarlet fever have embarrassed the work in some places. The financial scare has made it very hard work to bring up all the apportionments.

G. W. Green, pastor at Etna Green, was compelled to retire after seven months of successful work. Sickness disabled him, and he was advised to seek another climate. The churches and friends of his circuit generously helped him. Etna Green raised over $100 for this purpose. All of the churches did well and deserve mention. Benneville Sawyer was appointed to fill out the unexpired time until Conference, and he has done so with acceptability. Brother Green asked to be changed to the list of superannuates and his case referred to the Stewards as necessitous.

No deaths have been reported among our pastors or their families and but one marriage. A. J. Holderman, the pastor at Inwood, has taken a wife, and found in her a most excellent helpmate.

F. M. Kemper, after a struggle for health for over a year, and after much painful consideration, is constrained to ask to be placed on the list of superannuates, and that the Stewards consider his case as necessitous.

J. Wesley Oborn, the Conference evangelist, has been abundant in labors, and has proved an inspiration to the churches he has visited. He reports over five hundred professed conversions. He is a thoroughly trustworthy evangelist, both in doctrine and methods; always endeavoring to secure clear and satisfactory conversions.

He asks to be continued as Conference evangelist.

I appointed the following supplies: E. R. Wood, for Clunette; E. T. Hendrickson, for South Milford; C. L. Marsh, for Butler Circuit; M. L. Fansher, for Elkhart Circuit.

These local preachers have done well. Serious sickness hindered Brother Hendrickson's efforts. Brother Marsh has been abundant in labors and has done well. Brother Wood will report all expenses paid, all benevolences raised, and eight added to his church. Brother Fansher will report forty-three conversions, fifty-three additions and a new church bought and paid for.

H. D. Wright has been appointed to a charge in Wyoming.

S. L. Cates asks to be left without an appointment to attend "one of our schools." Lincoln Steere has been transferred to Northwest Kansas Conference.

Our District Conference met the 16th and 17th of March, and in the survey of the District expressed the conviction that there was an increase in the spiritual, benevolent and financial conditions of the Church in this District.

The District Convention of the Epworth Leagues, which met at Leesburg, testified to the gratifying condition of that department of church work. It was found that an increasing number of the Leagues are working all the departments of that organization. Pledged $1,500 to Indiana Hospital and undertook the support of G. A. Myers in China.

Our District had a series of meetings in the interest of all the benevolences and the aggressive work of the church. The churches were grouped into four divisions, and each group spent a whole day in mutual study of these interests.

The deportment and life of our supernumeraies and superannuates are worthy of all commendation.

Our women are active in all good works. They are ever ready to help the poor; advance the benevolences; work to support the pastor, and pay the current expenses; and not a whit behind in missionary endeavors.

We have sixty-seven Ladies' Aid Societies, and they have raised and expended $8,621 for every church purpose.

There are fourteen W. F. M. Societies, and they keep up a missionary fervor. They have their annual convention, which is full of interest and suggestion.

There are fifteen W. H. M. Societies doing excellent work. The example of these ladies is inspiring. Add to this that where the women are too busy to organize these societies they have not forgotten to organize the young women into Queen Esther Circles and Standard Bearers, and the children into King's Heralds. Considering the embarrassments under which these organizations are carried forward, too much praise cannot be given to the faithful few who hold up the banners.

The pastors sent in their annual reports March 25th, and as this was a week before the session, the statistical reports are to be found in the Minutes of the Conference.

From these reports I note the following facts:

First—There has been great activity in the temperance work. With a few exceptions all the pastors have been aggressive in the remonstrance work. We have been at it for the last five years. We are still on the firing line. We hope to push the contest until every saloon in the District is out of business. By the 4th of July it is believed that a license for a saloon may be obtained only in Goshen, Ligonier, Mishawaka and parts of Elkhart and Kendallville. I believe the other parts of the District are "dry." Our pastors are valuable workers with other citizens in accomplishing these results.

Second—Owing to the panic the financial showing is not what I hoped for at the beginning of the year; but I believe the deficiencies will be small. The pastors will be paid as much as usual. The benevolences will be as large as last year, though not quite equal to the apportionments. Considerable unrest and some opposition has developed over the increased apportionments, and the spread of information about the necessity therefor may dissipate that in the future.

Third—About $9,000 has been expended in improvements on churches and parsonages. For the most part all of this is raised and paid. Mishawaka spent $2,875 in repairs, and their church is greatly improved and beautified thereby.

Several churches have expended over $300, namely: Bourbon, Bristol, Goshen First, Inwood, Ligonier, New Paris, Pierceton, Warsaw and Wawaka.

The indebtedness for all purposes on the District is reported at $9,000. Much of this is secured by subscription, and all will be met with no great difficulty.

The entire amount of money raised for all purposes will reach $80,000, and will be an average of over eight dollars for each name on our church roll as members.

The largest amount of money raised by any one church is by Trinity, Elkhart, $6,848.

The largest reported average per member is at Wakarusa, $29; and next to that is Albion, $21.

Fourth—Our literature is not as widely used as could be desired. Pastors have preached, and solicited, and failed to reach the earnest wish of their hearts. In our Sunday Schools we have our own, generally. Several churches are trying some other publications. But earnest endeavor is being made to place our own in all the schools.

Reports show 204 Western Christian Advocates taken, 61 other Advocates, and 459 Epworth Heralds. The following pastors report book sales: C. H. Murray, 2; D. H. Guild, 4; H. J. Norris, 5; R. D. Biven, 10; J. C. Woodruff, 18; H. D. Wright, 20; G. W. Bailor, 32; G. H. Myers, 40, and W. H. Brightmire, 135.

Fifth—Our young people are urged to identify themselves with the Leagues and Sunday Schools. The showing is creditable. There are 44 Senior Leagues and 24 Juniors. There is a Sunday School in every one of our churches either the whole year through or a part of the year. All of these organizations are well attended and are doing a good work.

Sixth—It would be interesting to report all the answers which the pastors have made to the 100 or more questions in their reports; but time is too precious for that.

I note that seven pastors have made over 1,000 pastoral visits and calls. M. J. Magor, 1,000; C. E. White, 1,015; G. H. Myers, 1,080; L. A. Beeks, 1,110, W. H. Brightmire, 1,245; H. C. Smith, 1,347; D. H. Guild, 1,600, and A. E. Sarah, 1,900.

Seventh—Eleven of us have read over thirty books in addition to current literature, namely: W. H. Brightmire, 32; M. R. Peirce, 33; C. J. Graves and C. C. Travis, each 36; A. E. Sarah, 39; W. C. Butts, 48; B. E. Parker, 49; R. D. Biven, 50; M. J. Magor, 53; G. H. Myers, 56, and the Presiding Elder, 75. All of the preachers are readers and students.

Eighth—The largest number of sermons preached is by the pastors of Circuits. They travel the most miles, and face all sorts of weather, attend to several churches, and average more sermons and days in revivals than the pastors on the stations. Except on account of sickness they rarely fall below 104 a year, and usually mount up to 140 and in some cases as high as 247, which is the number by G. W. Bailor. Our station pastors do very well if they reach 104, but in the reports a number report in the nineties. One exception is C. C. Travis, who reports 251 sermons.

Ninth—Our Circuit pastors deserve mention for the long and weary miles which they travel. Ten have traveled over 2,000 miles and three over 5,000. A glance at the books read, the current literature examined, the sermons preached, the miles traveled, the visits made, the baptisms, funerals and weddings attended, the efforts to secure subscribers for our periodicals, the books sold, the debts raised, the improvements superintended, the classes taught, the revivals held, the various other calls upon time and strength, and these pastors on Circuits and in stations are the busiest of men. Add to this the sacrifices, and economies practiced and the offering reaches to heaven as a sweet smelling sacrifice.

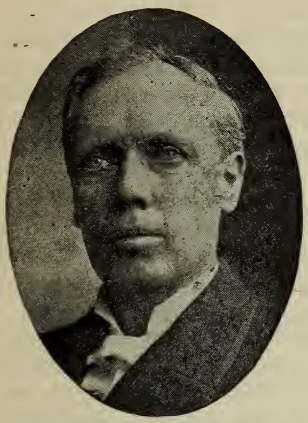
Tenth—Our pastors have worked hard for spiritual results. In no case have I learned of neglect here. In many cases they have been their own evangelists, and in others they have had help. In some it has been the help of other pastors, and then of the evangelists.

All have tried; but all have not been able to rejoice in seeing the desire of their hearts. Comparisons here are unfair for opportunities differ, and one church differeth from another as the stars differ in glory. My own heart and sympathies go out to the Circuits and their pastors perhaps more than is equitable. But I have a reason for it. To preside over a large circuit, having a number of churches and small congregations and not be able to see your people enough to establish close relations with them, has a tendency to weaken enthusiasm and discourage the stoutest hearts. But over all and through all our pastors report 1,089 conversions and 218 reclamations, making a total of 1,307. They report 1,300 accessions.

Finally—For myself I am thankful that I have held all but one of my Quarterly Conferences, and have been in 400 meetings, including the Conferences, the preaching services, the Sunday Schools, Leagues, mid-week services and conventions. I have answered all letters received. I have mailed letters, circulars, and notices to the pastors and officials, 2,000 pieces. I have preached, lectured or talked to congregations 150 times. I have been on every charge four times, and on some several more. I have not been sick one day during the year, and I am now in the enjoyment of a reasonable degree of health.

LOGANSPORT DISTRICT.

H. N. Herrick, Presiding Elder.



Dear Fathers and Brethren—In making this final report as Presiding Elder of the Logansport District, it is certainly most fitting that the first sentence should contain a devout acknowledgement of the love and unfailing goodness of our kind, Heavenly Father, not only for the year now closing, but for the entire period of a Presiding Elder's term. "To Him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own blood, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever."

The death angel was permitted to enter one of our parsonage homes during the year. On the 10th of last January little John Henry, aged nearly four years, and the only son of Rev. Chas. W. Shoemaker and wife, was taken by the angels to Him who said: "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of God." Appropriate funeral services were conducted by Dr. Madison Swadener in the Markland Avenue parsonage on the following Sunday afternoon and the next day the little form was tenderly borne to the family burial place in the Mount Tabor cemetery, near Muncie, and laid away to await the resurrection at the last day.

The life of the youngest child of Brother and Sister Hamilton, of Santa Fe, hung in the balance for several weeks during last summer, and was seriously ill during most of the year, but is now on the way to health again. Several of the pastors during the year have had very serious illness, most of which, we believe, was brought on by overwork. Perhaps the most serious of these is that of our dear and so universally beloved brother, E. E. Neal, of Elwood. In the midst of all his affliction, however, he has been exceedingly cheerful and hopeful, exhibiting the same sweet spirit that has been so characteristic of his life. He will ask for a superannuated relation.

The Elwood membership deserves great credit for fidelity to their pastor and loyalty to their church during these months when they were practically without a shepherd. In order that their pastor might have his entire salary during this great emergency they cheerfully accepted the kind, brotherly offer of Rev. A. G. Neal to arrange for the gratuitous supply of the pulpit to the end of the Conference year if necessary. In behalf of the church at Elwood and the Presiding Elder, Brother A. G. Neal and the ministers who responded to his request are hereby assured that their services and brotherly consideration have been most sincerely appreciated. The Men's League of this church, an organization of about 250 members, has stood royally by the church and their afflicted pastor during these months, looked after and kept up the prayer and class meetings and religiously tried to make up, so far as possible, for the absence of their faithful shepherd.

Rev. J. L. Ramsey, one of our sweet-spirited superannuated preachers, was seriously ill during most of the winter months and his friends despaired of his recovery. The latest information indicates that he may in time be restored to health fairly good for one of his years.

PASTORAL CHANGES.

Before Ezra Brumfield, who had been appointed to the Goldsmith charge as a supply, could move to the work he suffered a stroke of paralysis and was obliged to surrender his charge. John Parker, a local preacher in the Richmond District, was secured for the place, and has done very faithful and efficient service.

In the latter part of December Bishop Moore transferred L. C. Poor, of Wheatland Avenue Church, Logansport, to the Oregon Conference and appointed him to one of the Portland churches, Bishop Berry consenting. On the 13th of January Brother Poor and wife left Logansport for their western field of labor. W. S. Stewart, one of our excellent superannuated ministers, was secured to serve the charge until Conference. He was well received and has done good service.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

The Logansport District has no houseless congregations. Instead it has two or three more church buildings than congregations, though not counted in the aggregate. For several years new churches have with us usually meant that old buildings have given place to new ones rather than that the list has been augmented. In six years the number of churches has only gone from 80 to 86, while the increase in probable value has been from $289,000 to $497,250, an increase of over $208,000. Parsonages have increased from 26 to 35, with an increased value of over $26,000. The total increase in probable value in church property during the six years has been $234,300, which less the increase in indebtedness of $35,725, leaves a net increase of nearly $200,000 in church property. Some of our best churches are yet heavily in debt, which seriously interferes with their greater efficiency along other lines of liberality.

During the year two churches have been so thoroughly remodeled as to make of them practically new buildings. The first for the year is at Forest. The work was planned and subscriptions raised before Conference a year ago, while G. H. Redding was the pastor. The present pastor, Henry Lacy, took up the work immediately after his appointment last spring. His timely suggestions were cheerfully accepted by the trustees ,thereby adding to the conveniences of the church. The congregation now has a real pleasant house of worship, well suited to their needs for several years. The improvements cost $———, all amply provided for and in the early part of August the building was dedicated to the worship and service of God, Dr. Somerville Light, of Marion, officiating.

The other is the Salem church on the Boxley charge, Geo. F. Osbun, pastor. As is often the case, had the people known what their improvements would have cost it is quite probable they never would have undertaken them. One change suggested another, and when they were through they had a rural church building with conveniences some of the people never expected to have. The whole building is so remodeled in appearance and arrangement that it is practically a new building. The improvements cost $2,800. In March under the masterful leadership of Dr. W. D. Parr the balance needed to meet all expenses was amply provided for with a neat margin, and the house dedicated to divine worship in the presence of a large and delighted congregation.

During the year an abandoned church called Omega, on the Akron charge, T. M. Hill pastor, was taken up, the house put in good repair at an expense of about $750, the class reorganized and made a part of the Akron Circuit.

Grace Church, Kokomo, Dr. M. Swadener pastor, has been redecorated, repaired and beautified at an expense of $4,000, making it in its interior arrangement one of the most beautiful and well appointed houses of worship in the state. Sheridan has spent $600 on church improvement, Alto $500, and from fifteen to twenty other churches amounts ranging from a few dollars up to $400.

A new parsonage has been built at Macy, S. C. Norris pastor, at a cost of $1,100, and the beauty of this enterprise is it is all paid for. This parsonage, which takes the place of an old one, has nine rooms besides wardrobes and other conveniences and makes one of the very pleasant preacher's homes in the District. Considering the stringency in money matters, the pastor and people at Macy deserve great credit for their liberality and wise management of this much needed improvement.

Quite extensive repairs were made on the parsonage at Roann and Sharpsville to the extent of $385 and $225 respectively. Other improvements were made during the year on from twelve to fifteen parsonages involving an outlay of $100 or less in each instance.

A heroic enterprise has been begun by the Markland Avenue Church, Kokomo, C. W. Shoemaker, pastor, in the building of a new house of worship. The pastor, in his report, says: "We have the foundation laid and completed for a new $30,000 building, have taken nearly $10,000 in subscriptions and have an excellent location. We have paid off all old indebtedness and have expended nearly $7,000 on the new structure." Had it not been for the financial crash of the past year this enterprise would have been considerably farther along than it is; and had it not been for the remarkable persistence and energy of the pastor, it is altogether probable the enterprise would scarcely have been begun.

Church debts have received careful consideration on several of the charges of the District. At Elwood the pastor, E. E. Neal, reports $6,200 paid during the year, which is an unusually good record when everything is taken into consideration. At Galveston, Herbert Boase pastor, their entire debt of $1,200 has been paid off during the year. Great credit for this work, in addition to the pastor, is due to two excellent ladies in the church, Mrs. Zehring and Mrs. Stoffer, who took the matter in hand and allowed no one to escape. On last Sunday the congregation witnessed the burning of the mortgage at their regular service. It was a church fire they delighted to see and very much in contrast to the one that swept away their house of worship a few years ago.

THE BENEVOLENCES.

Logansport District has sorely felt the severity of the financial crash. Most of our towns and cities are built up on railroad and manufacturing interests, and several of our churches are composed largely of families where the wage earners are employed in these business concerns. When they are thrown out of employment or their time reduced to one-half or one-third, it makes it very difficult for our people to do what they would gladly have done had their wages continued. Some have been obliged to avail themselves of help obtained from associated charities, while others, who did not need these favors, felt under special obligations to help needy neighbors in their emergency. Some of our pastors and stewards as they have gone around to collect money have felt that it would have been more fitting had they taken with them a basket of provisions or a loaf of bread. These facts are not referred to here by way of an apology, but as stubborn facts which some of our pastors have had to meet, and should be considered in estimating their work for the year. In most instances they have never worked harder, nor been more persistent in seeing the last man, nor in working to the last minute. A few will be able to report an advance over last year; possibly a few a decrease. The aggregate for all causes, we believe, will compare favorably with other years. A large per cent. of the pastors felt obliged to wait until they came to Conference before making reports definite enough to be of any value here. The District continues its support of Dr. Pyke's work in China. The new rules of the Missionary Society limiting the support of missionaries to the Station Plan and that of native preachers to Special Gifts may be more systematic, but it will take a little time to adjust the work in some of the Districts to suit.

Some complaints have been made because we have so many special agents in the field and that there are so many appeals from the secretaries of our various benevolences urging that their special cause be fully presented and their amounts raised for sure, that there is danger of bewilderment or something worse among pastors and churches. The effort of the General Conference to consolidate the benevolences has apparently not reduced the number of causes to be presented to our people or the number of secretaries in the field. Perhaps the gathering in Baltimore next month will have something to say on these subjects.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT AND DISTRICT MEETINGS.

In Logansport District the largest salary for pastors is $1,800 besides parsonage, and the smallest $400 and the pastor pay his own rent. For the year six charges increased their pastor's salary $100 each, three $50 each, two $40 each, and two or three others smaller amounts. There were, however, two instances where adjoining charges were consolidated, but the salary fell quite a little short of what the aggregate salary was as separate charges. After making good for this shrinkage there was an advance of over three hundred dollars in the estimated cash salaries for the district. During the term there has been an increase of over $6,000 in the salaries for the District, which is an average of $1,000 a year. This is not given because it is not considered extraordinary, or, as some might think, even a good average, but to show that some increase has been made during the term.

The District Stewards' meeting, held in May, was remarkably well attended by pastors and District stewards, and a most excellent and harmonious spirit prevailed, which has characterized all these meetings during the entire term.

The District Epworth League Convention, held at Tipton in June, was exceptionally fine. An unusually strong program planned by the District Cabinet, with Chesteen W. Smith as president, was carried out practically to the letter, and all the sessions were well attended.

The District Lyceum was held at Sharpsville, in the month of October, with a splendid program and attendance, and was pronounced by some as the best held in the District for the entire term. A Missionary program for one day was added to the Lyceum and proved to be very enjoyable and quite an inspiration. The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies held their District meetings with a good degree of interest. It would not be a bad idea for Ladies' Aid Societies to have District meetings and exchange ideas on this very important department of church activity among our women. And it may not be long until we will have Men's League or Brotherhood District meetings which for a time would be decidedly helpful.

PASTORAL WORK AND REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Two of the principal branches of pastoral work are preaching the word and house to house or personal visitation. When Paul charged the elders of Ephesus to take heed to all the flock over which the Holy Ghost had made them overseers, to Feed the Church of the Lord which he purchased with His own blood, he plainly indicated that in the preaching of the word they were to Feed the flock, that is, perform the office of a shepherd or pastor. This part of pastoral work, we think, has not been neglected by the pastors in Logansport District. From their reports it appears that the smallest number of sermons by any pastor during the year is 80, and the largest is 220. The average is 140. The Presiding Elder thought he had preached more times than any pastor in his District, but with the most careful gleaning he can find only 185 to his credit. There is one thing, however, of which he has no doubt, and that is he has made his sermons go farther than any other man in his District. This is characteristic of Presiding Elders. No other officials in our church can excel them on this line—except those higher up.

In pastoral visiting there has been a greater variation in numbers even than in sermons. The smallest number reported is 110, the largest 1,053; average 578. By the way, the largest number is by our Brother Neal, of Elwood, and is probably his report for only seven months of the year. With one or two exceptions the pastors have spent from two to fifteen weeks in revival meetings, an average of seven and one-third weeks for each pastor. Only three report no conversions or persons reclaimed, and three charges were not heard from when this report was made out. The reports forwarded aggregate 993 converted or reclaimed. Probably for the entire District the number will be 1,100 or more. The number received on probation and by letter is 1,103, with four charges out.

The following charges report ten or more conversions or persons received into membership into the church, the first number giving the conversions and persons reclaimed, the second accessions to the church by letter and on probation: Akron, 82 and 50; Alto, 10 and 29; Amboy, 101 and 43; Boxley, 18 and 18; Bunker Hill, 22 and 23; Center, 12 and 3; Cicero, 12 and 15; Converse, 40 and 40; Denver, 87 and 87; Elwood, 24 and 72; Forest, 14 and 14; Frankton, 70 and 67; Goldsmith, 60 and 12; Hillisburg, 17 and 25; Grace Church, 64 accessions and a revival in all the departments of the church; Markland, 25 and 47; Market Street, 45 and 50; Macy, 17 and 32; Mexico, 33 and 37; Peru, 20 and 76; Roann, 36 and 40; Russiaville, 13 and 22; Santa Fe, 25 and 40; Sharpsville, 38 and 54; Sheridan, 55 and 38; Tipton, 75 and 55; Walton, 24 and 20. The charges not in this list have, on the average, received as much consecrated labor from their pastors as those named, and possibly the record made out by the One who sees all would make quite a different showing from that here given.

MINISTERIAL HELP.

It is both fitting and just that proper recognition be made here of the valuable services rendered by several of our superannuated and local ministers during the term now closing. The Presiding Elder has frequently called on our superannuated brethren, P. J. Albright, T. H. C. Beall, J. E. Ervin, F. A. Fish, J. H. Jackson, J. W. Miller, A. M. Patterson, W. S. Stewart, J. H. Slack, and possibly others, and on local preachers, Samuel Barrow, Dr. M. C. Kimball, M. H. Krauss, W. F. Prather and others for help on Quarterly Meeting Sundays, especially where pastors were not ordained, and they have uniformly responded with such good cheer as to make their service of double value.

What was said of our superannuated preachers in my first report to Conference fifteen years ago, may be repeated here with the same appropriateness. There is a sense in which these men have "subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens." Welcome, thrice welcome, the expected legislation in our church that will make lighter and brighter the evening of life for this honored and honorable class in our church and ministry.

MATTERS PERSONAL.

The Conference is requested to pardon the use of the personal pronoun in this paragraph. Its use is resorted to, not from choice, but because the matters herein referred to are largely personal and can probably be more clearly expressed by such usage.

Sixteen years ago, when the Conference was held in this city, Bishop Fitzgerald gave me my first appointment as Presiding Elder. It is a matter of no small personal satisfaction that I am permitted to close my work in this office in the same city where I began.

This is my thirteenth report as a Presiding Elder. No superstitious fears are entertained because of the number, for, like the "baker's dozen," it simply means good measure. At the close of my term on the Muncie District I was able to report that in all the Quarterly Conferences of the entire six years there had never been manifested in a single instance any other than the most delightful Christian spirit. I had not heard an unkind word for either pastors or official members. This time I cannot do quite so well. And yet, in these six years and four months, outside of two or three instances, the same may be said of all the Quarterly Conferences I have held. This much I can say, that during these twelve years I do not remember that any pastor or official member ever said an unkind word to me. It would, however, be strange indeed if I was not sincerely thankful for such courtesy and respect.

This session closes my fortieth year as a member of the North Indiana Conference. Never belonged to any other, never had any chance to, never desired to, never expect to. Outside of about two years over thirty years ago I never belonged to any other fraternity than the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. That is good enough for me, the best, I think, this side the fraternity of the redeemed in heaven. Not that I have any objections to other fraternities, for I have not. It always seemed to me I never had time to attend these meetings. Perhaps the real reason was I could not have joined had I wanted to. Most of them doubtless felt they would soon have sick benefits and funeral expenses to pay and that it was not worth while.

In my early years in the ministry health was frail. Insurance companies rejected my applications, for which I thank the Lord. Doctor Goode, my first Presiding Elder, whom a few in the Conference still remember, once said to my wife: "You will have to take good care of that husband of yours or he will not be with you long." Sometimes when going the rounds of the Circuit the friends would say to my wife: "Poor Brother Herrick! He's not long for this world." For some reason I have not heard such expressions of sympathy for years, especially since I have been a Presiding Elder. My advice to brethren who are not in rugged health is, do not decline the Presiding Eldership if the Bishop insists on appointing you to a District. Others do not need it—that is, the advice.

With the Bishop's consent, I shall ask for an appointment to some church as an assistant pastor. For years I have had a desire, perhaps an ambition, to retire from active work when I could do so wholly of my own accord and when I had my best appointment. I am now in my sixty-second year, have the best appointment I ever had, or ever expect to. am closing a fairly good period in the Conference and my second term as Presiding Elder. It therefore seems to me an opportune time to step aside from active work in the Conference. However, I have a persuasion I shall, in some measure at least, be in the active work still. In my early years in the ministry I felt peculiarly drawn to work in mission fields, but poor health and very limited education prevented. When in later years these obstacles were practically removed I was too old. At a meeting of Presiding Elders and others from our three Indiana Conferences held in Indianapolis about two years ago, conducted by Bishop McDowell, I found myself struggling with the question: "What can I do?" when unexpectedly there came into my mind the idea: "You might spend as many years in the foreign mission field as you do in the home." I was so overwhelmed and overjoyed with the thought that for a time I scarcely knew what to do. I wondered if this was from the Lord. I still do not know. So far I have had no reason to doubt it. Do not expect any. I cannot go; neither can I send. But with the Lord helping me I might be able to keep one or more good natives in the field to represent me there. This is my task. Already it has given me a wonderful peace and joy. It has enabled me to come up to this critical hour, this crisis in the life of a Methodist preacher, with a great deal of resignation and satisfaction. I know not what the outcome will be, but the work is His, and I am His, and His will be done.

Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me."

MUNCIE DISTRICT.

Leslie J. Naftger, Presiding Elder.

In making this, my fourth annual report, Bishop Berry and Brethren of the Conference, I do so with a more sincere feeling of thankfulness to our Heavenly Father than ever before. I have had excellent health during all of the year, and have found my work pleasant. Only one change has taken place in the personnel of the District. About October first, Brother Loren M. Edwards, who was appointed to Westfield, was taken up and appointed to Simpson Church, Fort Wayne, and Harvey H. Hocker was taken from the Bluffton Circuit and appointed to Westfield, where he has done good service for the last half of the year.

DEATHS.

Three times we have been visited by death this year. On Monday, May 20th, at 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Carrie (Robinson) McNary quietly passed away. She had been in poor health for several months, but was thought to be improving and was with her family on the Sabbath more than usual, but was suddenly taken worse in the night and did not respond to any medical treatment, but steadily grew weaker until the end came. She was, both by nature and training, well calculated to be the wife of a Methodist preacher, and in her death our brother, and the church, has sustained a great loss. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Albany, conducted by the Presiding Elder, assisted by a number of the pastors of the District.

On Thursday, June 6th, Mrs. Nancy Harvey, widow of our beloved brother, Charles Harvey, left us for her eternal home. She had been in failing health for several years, greatly afflicted at times, but the end was peaceful, and she sweetly fell asleep in Jesus. Her funeral was conducted at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Delno C. Sipe, by the Presiding Elder and brethren of the District, and her remains were laid by the side of her husband in Beach Grove cemetery in Muncie.

Myrtle Almira Foster, wife of our Brother Everett M. Foster, passed away on Saturday, August 10th. For more than a year our sister made a determined struggle against disease. She greatly desired to live and stand by the side of her husband in his work, but at last was completely resigned to the will of God, and passed away triumphantly, greatly beloved by the people whom they had served and a large circle of other friends.

The Presiding Elder conducted her funeral at the Methodist church at De Soto assisted by other brethren, and the remains were taken to her old home for interment.

We have only had one case of serious sickness this year. Our brother J. E. Coffin was taken on New Year's day with what proved to be a very serious case of typhoid pneumonia. For days his life was despaired of, but through the prayers of his brethren and the skill of the physicians he was raised up again, but for more than two months was out of the pulpit and the active work of the pastorate.

BIRTHS.

Three of our parsonage homes have been gladdened by the coming of welcome little ones. To Brother and Sister Arnold and to Brother and Sister W. A. Griest, each a son; and to Brother and Sister J. H. McNary a daughter. Our prayer is that each may live to bless and comfort these parents through the coming years.

SOME OF OUR PROBLEMS.

How to provide for some of our country preaching places is becoming more and more a problem. So many of those who have supported the church in these places in the past are moving to the cities and larger towns that in some places we are hardly able to pay an adequate salary at all. The country churches lose their support both on salary and the benevolences and in many cases although the city churches get even greater support from them than the country church did there is no appreciable increase in the amount the city church gives for all purposes.

This is a more serious loss to the kingdom than might at first appear. It reaches out and takes hold upon the very fountain head of liberality and Christian effort.

There also seems to be a wide-spread spirit of indifference upon the part of many church members that is more difficult to overcome than the actual sin of those outside the church. Added to this in some communities is a spirit of disloyalty to the church and its rules and requirements that makes the work of the faithful, conscientious pastor a very difficult one. In some of the churches during the year the most faithful, persistent and intelligent effort has been put forth, by men who seldom fail, without any manifest results. They seem to be lovers of other things more than lovers of God, and find it easy to neglect the church for almost any reason. It seems to us "Time that judgment should begin at the house of God." In spite of these conditions, however, we shall be able to make a fair showing in the way of conversions and renewals. Our pastors have been faithful and have "not shunned to declare the whole counsel of God."

We also find the financial work of the church a problem in some of the charges, owing to bad systems of finances, none at all, or fairly good systems, but indifferently worked. Our people seem to lack either conscience or education in the matter of giving. Men who would cheerfully and willingly spend a dollar for refreshments or the entertainment of a friend or comparative stranger, find themselves perfectly satisfied to drop a dime or even a nickel into the collection basket at the church.

These people are not really stingy, they are simply without an intelligent vision upon the whole subject of our relation to God and the support of his kingdom. I am convinced we have too many man-made systems of finance, and not nearly enough preaching on the biblical standard of obligation and expectation in these matters. Let our people really once understand that the gate of heaven is as surely barred to the covetous man, as it is to the drunkard, and that a portion of our substance is as really required and as necessary to acceptable relationship with God as the giving to Him of ourselves, and we shall see larger liberality and a greater consecration of money to God.

BUILDING AND IMPROVING.

While no new churches or parsonages have been erected in the District this year, several have been so remodeled and improved as to make them practically new buildings. The Madison Avenue church at Anderson and also the parsonage were moved a distance of six blocks north and located on Fourteenth street. The church and parsonage were rebuilt and improved at an expense of over $7,000. We now have a plant that is not only beautiful but convenient. The name of the church has been changed to Grace Church, and the wisdom of its removal from the old site has been fully justified in the doubling of the Sunday School and the receiving of a large number of new members and increased activity along all lines of church work. Much credit is due Brother J. W. Walters for the success of this enterprise. Dr. Parr had charge of the finances.

The Big Spring church on the Joliettville charge is being enlarged and rebuilt at an expense of about $3,000. This will make it virtually a new church. It will be ready for dedication about the first of May.

The church at Blountsville, on the New Burlington charge, was improved and changed at a cost of $1,450, making it very pleasant and acceptable as a house of worship. It was re-opened in December with Dr. T .J. Johnson in charge of the services.

Grace Church, Hartford City, was improved by putting in new art glass windows, painting the entire church, new fresco, new carpets, furnace, etc., at an expense of $1,500. This church is very much improved in both its interior and exterior appearance. All financial obligations have been met and over $200 is in the treasury to begin the work of a new year.

The church at Wheeling, on the Matthews charge, was repaired and beautified at an expense of $846. At Lapel $800 were spent. At High Street, Muncie, $500; Selma charge, mostly at Mt. Pleasant church, $400; Zion, on Fisher's charge, $300; Mendon, on Ingalls charge, $225. Other charges that have made repairs to the extent of $100 or more are: Summitville; Ninth Street, Noblesville; Albany Circuit; Noble Street, Anderson, and Normal City, Muncie. The total amount spent for repairs is $19,427, or over $8,000 more than the previous year.

Improvements on parsonages have been made at Yorktown, $600; Madison Street, Muncie, $300; Gaston, $200; and minor improvements on a number of others. On Alexandria Circuit the parsonage at Gilman was sold and a building purchased on Sixth street, in Alexandria, which was repaired, and a good barn was erected, making a good home for the pastor where his children can have the privilege of the Alexandria schools. About $400 was spent over the amount received for the old parsonage.

PAID ON DEBTS.

In addition to the amount reported for repairs, we have paid $10,445 on debts. Fortville has paid off the last dollar of their debt and had a service of rejoicing over the note burning.

Pendleton has paid about $3,000 on their debt the past year, leaving it now less than $2,500. At Carmel $1,650 was paid this year, leaving the debt less than $1,000. This church ought by all means to have a gift of at least $500 from the Church Extension Society. At Selma $1,000 have been paid. Also $1,000 at First Church, Anderson, and $400 at Roll, on Hartford City Circuit.

At Normal City, Muncie, the last of a troublesome debt, amounting four years ago to about $3,500 was paid off, and a week of rejoicing was inaugurated for the week commencing March 22d, participated in Dr. M. C. B. Mason, Dr. T. J. Johnson, the Conference Quartet and others. Besides this, in that time a parsonage worth $3,500 has been erected and all paid for, and the church has been beautifully frescoed and covered on the floor of both auditorium and lecture room with velvet brussels carpet. Too much praise cannot be given to Rev. C. J. Everson and the Ladies' Aid Society for this great victory. His church desires that he shall come back and enjoy it for the coming year.

REVIVALS.

We rejoice in a general spirit of revival in almost all parts of the District. We shall not be able to report as large ingatherings at any one place as in some other years, but the work has been more general and some churches that have been upon the heart of the Presiding Elder for four years have had glorious awakenings. Special mention ought to be made of a few of these revivals. On Perkinsville Charge, W. C. Asay pastor, there have been revivals of more than ordinary power and results at every preaching place. In all more than 100 were converted. At Gaston, J. A. Ruley pastor, a revival that completely changed the character of the church has come as a result of the faithful planning and earnest effort of this tireless pastor and others of the faithful. About 100 were converted. Also at White Chapel, on the Carmel Charge, a revival of great power, C. H. Wilkinson pastor, with about 75 conversions. There is no more wide-awake, tireless worker in the Conference than this dear brother. Meetings with more than ordinary results were also held at First Church, Anderson, and First Church, Alexandria. The following charges report 50 or more conversions: Albany Circuit; First Church, Alexandria; First Church, Anderson; Eaton; Grace Church, Anderson; Carmel; Fortville; Gaston; Grace Church, Hartford City; Lapel; Avondale, Muncie; Perkinsville and Yorktown. A number of other charges report over forty conversions. The totals as reported to me are as follows: Meetings held, 82; weeks in meetings, 260; converted or reclaimed, 1,795; sanctifications, 464; received on probation, 856; into full membership, 595; by certificate, 597. Making the present membership in the District, probationers, 1,301; full members, 11,348.

PERIODICALS.

I have tried to urge our pastors to be faithful to the Western, but we can report only 346, a loss of 71 from last year. We report 47 other Advocates and 517 Epworth Heralds. Or an indication that less than one in twelve of our members take a church paper. We take 18 copies of the Methodist Review; 2,495 Sunday School Advocates; 1,946 Classmates and 1,092 Journals. Pastors complain that the increased price of the Western cuts down their lists in spite of their efforts to increase them.

BENEVOLENCES.

I fear there will be some falling off in our benevolent collections this year, first because many of our people have been out of work for several months and have had to get behind with rent and living expenses. They simply can not pay. Then the change in the benevolent boards has caused some falling off where we had a number of $30 shares taken. But in spite of these difficulties, we shall make a good showing. I am sure the total for the benevolences will be about up to last year. I presume no District in the Conference has suffered from the financial flurry as our. We have more factories than any other, and so many of these have been shut down for months. Then at Muncie, our principal city, was felt more than at any other one place the results of the street car strike of January 1st to March 1st. Our pastors have not hesitated, however, to present all our claims and press the matter faithfully and to the last, and the results will represent more real giving and sacrifice than ever before.

SOME STATISTICS.

Our pastors have not been idle. They report 5,490 sermons preached; 23,693 pastoral visits; 430 adults baptized and 152 infants baptized; 389 funerals and 316 weddings.

DISTRICT EVANGELIST.

Our District evangelist, E. B. Westhafer, has been abundant in labors. He has been well received and enthusiastically commended by every pastor whom he has assisted. The results of his work have fully justified his appointment, and we are confident that the next year will show still greater results. His appointment for another year was asked by both the Stewards of the District in their meeting and by the Ministerial Association of the District. We hope to have some better plan for his work and for meeting our financial obligation to him. His salary for this year is met in full by the collections and the apportionments to the Charges.

SPECIAL DAYS.

On August 13th and 14th we held, at Alexandria, a series of special services for the ministers alone on the first day and for ministers and laymen on the second day. There was not so good an attendance of the official members as we had expected, but all present acknowledged the great helpfulness of the meetings and expressed a dsire that the plan be tried again, but possibly with two meetings in different parts of the District rather than one.

On January 20th we had a special day of fasting and prayer at Anerson for the revival work on the District that resulted in much good and an increased activity for the salvation of souls.

We had one of the best District Conferences ever held in the District at Grace Church, Anderson, March 3d to 5th. It would be difficult in this District to secure even a motion to discontinue the District Conference.

The ministers of the District voted to undertake to raise $5,000 to name the chapel in the new Methodist Hospital for the Muncie District.

The following places are without saloons, or soon will be, as a result of the blanket remonstrance: Eaton, Albany, Gaston, Yorktown, Pendleton, Lapel, Summitville, and they are now circulating one at Selma.

Last Conference an order was granted to sell the Ebenezer church, which was done and the proceeds given to the McCordsville charge.

CONCLUSIONS.

I would not feel willing to conclude this report without expressing my great appreciation of the work of the Ladies' Aid Society. Besides asissting largely in all the work of repairing, beautifying and enlarging churches and parsonages on the District, in some instances they have come to the rescue of the Stewards in making up a deficit on the pastor's salary that could hardly have been met had it not been for their aid. After all the work they have done they report a cash balance on hand of $2,114.81.

Our local preachers and exhorters for the most part have been faithful and honored the confidence the church has placed in them by earnest co-operation with the pastor in all the work of his charge.

Our brethren who are on the retired list, are all active as health and circumstances will permit. They are growing old gracefully and are much beloved by all who come in contact with them.

I am pleased to note from the reports of the class leaders that many more families are observing family worship than formerly. And that the class leaders are making many more visits to their members.

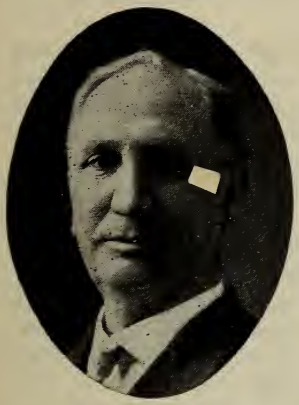
I desire to thank the pastors and their families for an unfailing kindness and consideration for my welfare that has made my work this year more than ever a delight. Unto Him that hath loved us and redeemed us by His own precious blood, be glory and honor, dominion and power forever and forever. Amen.

RICHMOND DISTRICT.

T. M. Guild, Presiding Elder.



Bishop and Brethren.—In presenting this, my second annual report of the Richmond District, I desire first of all to recognize the superlative goodness and exceeding grace of God, to whom belong, praise, honor and glory, and from whom all blessing and power come.

It was on the first day of August, the gentle spirit of our beloved brother, Rev. John H. McMahon took its flight to the land of fadeless crowns and joys supernal. No gentler soul, or more unassuming, faithful man has been among us.

The coronation of Sister Hannah Lamb, widow of Rev. Samuel Lamb, took place in the month of May. She did much for the church, and through enfeebled health was faithful to all the services of the house of God. She supported the church generously in life, and left what of earthly good she had to the Third Church, Richmond, of which she was a member.

The personnel of the District has changed in four instances. The first week of September Brother M. M. Reynolds was relieved of his work for good and sufficient reasons, and I secured Rev. J. A. Rhoades to take up the work. He undertook a difficult task and has succeeded well. He has been faithful in his work, and stands in good favor with the people.

Rev. M. B. Parounagian, of Farmland, felt that a change of climate was imperative to the preservation of his health. He sought and obtained a place in the Oregon Conference and was transferred thereto in the middle of the year; the name of the charge, Estacada, Oregon. His mantle fell upon Rev. H. L. Overdeer, of the Illinois Conference. His labors have demonstrated the wisdom of his selection. He was transferred by Bishop McDowell.

Spartansburg Circuit was supplied by Brother Everett Naftzger. He desiring to attend school, was relieved of his work the first of September to attend DePauw University. I appointed Charles Wesley Chadwick, a young local preacher, to fill his place. He has given full proof of his ministry in the conversion of nearly a hundred persons on the charge. His return is desired next year.

Brother I. E. Price, pastor of Millgrove, has been afflicted for several years with an asthmatic trouble during the fall and early winter, but this year more severely than formerly, and his physician advised a change of climate. He was appointed by Bishop Berry to the Nevada Mission and stationed at Truckee, California. Rev. Ernest E. Bergman was secured to fill out the year, and so well has he behaved himself that they request his return for next year. The. Rev. W. D. Trout, who was appointed to a nominal place, went west without notifying the Presiding Elder of the time or place.

The church organizations of the District are in fairly good condition. The development of the Sunday School work has been given careful attention. The figures will reveal a healthy growth. Our superintendents and teachers are making a strong effort to maintain the highest standard of efficiency in the schools. Only one school plans to hibernate, and it successfully carries out its plan, but promises to redouble its fervor when it begins again. Quite a large per cent. of the additions to the church are from the ranks of the Sunday Schools.

We have but a few competent persons who are willing to act as superintendent of the Junior Leagues. For this reason the Junior Leagues are falling out. But eighteen are reported in the District, and only a few of these are accomplishing the true mission of the organization. There are a few that are doing a most excellent work.

In a number of places the Epworth League is active and renders acceptable service, and is the right arm of strength to the pastor. Some of our young people need a truer conception of their obligations to the church and the Sunday evening preaching service. Something must be done to enlist the army of young people in the Epworth League or the League, as a distinct young people's society, will be lost in a union of both old and young, the majority of whom are classed by the young as old. Let some Moses be taken from the bullrushes and, guided by the queenly hand of consistency, lead us out of the wilderness of sloth and indifference into the promised land of youthful activity.

The society commonly called Ladies' Aid, is doing a commendable work. In many places they pay the coal bill, light bill, paint the parsonage, build the sidewalks, pay interest on old debts, raise deficiencies on salaries, comprise three-fourths of the prayer meeting, and time forbids to tell of the many things undertaken and accomplished by these godly women. There seems to be an increasing willingness on the part of the brethren to allow these sisters to toil and tug to pay the bills while they save the country from political disaster and social ruin. I judge the future will build monuments to the memory of these noble women, but they will not exceed in beauty and worth those they have already builded for themselves in the magnificent churches they have practically made possible. Strange to say there are a few self-constituted standard makers who speak disparagingly of this society and their work.

I am glad to report that in a good many places the interest in the class and prayer meetings is increasing, and where indulged in show in the spiritual life efficiency of the church. O, for the return of the old time, God-honored class meeting in all our churches.

The Woman's Missionary Societies, Home and Foreign, are certainly doing a vast amount of good, not only for their own collection and work, but for the general benevolences as well. I hope the coming General Conference will give their presidents the same official recognition they have accorded the presidents of the Ladies' Aid Society.

The improvement of church property has been quite extensive the past year. The church at Fountain City and at Whitewater, on the Fountain City Circuit, have been thoroughly overhauled, new heating and lighting plants, new seats, carpets, walls decorated and various improvements, at a cost of $2,400. The Redkey church has been beautified with fresco, varnishing, and other repairs, that make it one of the handsomest auditoriums in the Conference. It is pronounced as being better and more beautiful than when new. New lighting plant, sidewalks add to the looks and convenience of the property. The full outlay lacks a little of $2,000. The expenditure of about a $1,000 or more on the church at Knightstown adds to the comfort and beauty of the property; fresco, varnishing, and other conveniences make a showing for the money spent. The church at Philadelphia has passed through a transformation; new furnace, raised floor, class rooms, choir loft, new paper, painting and such other needed work, at a cost of $1,025, all provided for. Dunkirk has added to the value of its church property to the amount of $1,082. New furnace, basement, with accommodations for the Sunday School, are some of the improvements. New art glass windows, handsome wall paper, new carpet are a part of the additions to the church at Hagerstown. Money all raised with a little surplus. The cost was only $325. The Shirley Circuit has spent $550 on improving her churches. New seats at Kennard, roof on the Maple Valley church and other much needed items at other points. A new barn, sidewalks, heating and lighting plants, painting and papering some of the things at Saratoga. The outlay about $300. The old landmark at Dublin has changed its form; a practically new building now marks the place of the old. In a few weeks the church will be dedicated, a convenient and modern building in every way. Brother Godwin has shown himself to be able to succeed against ultra conservatism, which at times was provoking, to say the least.

The new church at Union City is progressing slowly. When the stone work was completed to the square the architects ordered a discontinuance of the work till spring. It is estimated that it will be ready for dedication by the first of September.

Improvements on other charges of less amounts are Greensfork, Greenfield, Cadiz, New Castle Circuit, Farmland, Economy, Charlottsville, Cambridge City and Millgrove.

The parsonage at Winchester has received many needed repairs at an outlay of more than $300. Maxwell is a new charge formed from parts of three circuits. A new parsonage has been purchased and money all provided for, at a cost of $1,050. Union Chapel, on the Trenton Charge, was abandoned about three years ago, but the Lord has greatly blessed the labors of His servants till now the membership is greatly increased, the old house beautified and repaired, and the whole community is being aroused for good.

The total paid for improving churches and parsonages on the District is reported to be within a few dollars of $17,000. It is not too much to say that the pastor in all these cases has been the prime mover, money raiser, general manager, paymaster and the go-between in all times of factional differences.

The reports of benevolences were slow in coming in, but from those received show an increase in a few charges but a falling off on the part of others. I am fearful that the aggregate will be less than last year, although the figures will be needed to determine. The order was to see the last man and keep at it till time for the last train. The order is being observed. The preachers who took their subscription early in the year suffer the least.

The chief work of the preacher, in my opinion, is to so preach the Gospel that sinners will be converted and believers sanctified. With this object in view the pastors of the Richmond District have made special effort. Not a single charge but reports some converted, reclaimed or sanctified. Some exceptionally good seasons of refreshings from the presence of the Lord are reported. On the Saratoga charge, under the leadership of the pastor, P. E. Greenwalt, 265 persons made professions of having been especially blessed, the church greatly aroused and strengthened. A gracious work of grace has been received at Dunkirk; 127 seekers at the altar make claim to the saving power of the blood of Christ. The pastor, F. P. Morris, was the promoter, preacher, evangelist and singer of the meeting, which lasted for fifty days. At New Castle a splendid revival was held under the direction of Hart and Magann, evangelists. Dr. Bridge and his co-workers were instrumental under God in persuading 160 to seek reconciliation with Jesus Christ. First and Grace churches, Richmond, united in a union meeting with Brothers Hobson and Small as leaders. The meeting was a pronounced success. The church was greatly aroused under the faithful denunciation of sin, and many were rescued from the maelstrom of the worldly life to spiritual devotement to Christ. Cards were burned, the theatre abandoned and the prayer meeting attended. They report the number as receiving some definite blessing as more than 200, but many more felt their hearts burn within them again and again. On the Fountain City Circuit four revivals were held. The pastor, J. W. Zerbe, preached twice a day for ten weeks, for two weeks once a day, save Sabbaths, and would be at it now if it were not that Conference interfered. Seventy people were either converted or reclaimed. This means much for the charge. An increase of salary is promised. Meetings of precious results were held on the Spartanburg charge. This is Brother Chadwick's first experience, and he has proved himself a workman that need not be ashamed. Brother Jones, a local preacher, and Brother and Sister Boston rendered assistance. Eighty people make claim to be converted or reclaimed. Brothers Martin and Thornburg assisted each other in meetings with splendid effect. The result of the efforts was gratifying to both churches, there being about 80 conversions at Greenfield and 70 at Knightstown. The conservative town of Centerville has had the best revival of years. The church was greatly quickened and nearly a hundred are reported as having been reached. The town of Spiceland has been pretty thoroughly shaken with real spiritual power. The meeting reached beyond the Methodist church, the Quakers asked for a share in the effort, and when the crowds became too large for the Methodist church they went to the Friends church. One hundred are claiming to be converted, reclaimed or sanctified. The Quakers have proffered to assist in paying a part of an increased salary for Brother Barrett in order in induce him to return. A real spiritual downpour visited Philadelphia. Brother Hile was his own evangelist. It looked for a time it would be a fruitless effort, but after four weeks of persistent work the power came and 70 persons were healed of their souls' malady. Redkey seems to have some of the old-time Methodist enthusiasm; two seasons of revivals have been held, and they are seeking to provide for more than the usual means of grace. A feature of the meeting was a half-hour prayer service in one of the business houses just before the afternoon service. The men seemed to enjoy the meetings and great good was accomplished. While some were waiting on customers, others were seeking the Lord. Fifty-three have been converted and the whole church quickened. Four meetings have been held on the Trenton charge, and each one proved to be a revival. The fruit of the ten weeks' work is 154 converted, 42 reclaimed and three sanctified. Petitions many and long ask for the return of the pastor, Paul P. Truitt. The spiritual condition of Ridgeville is better than last year. A gracious meeting was held in the early fall which resulted in 47 conversions. Special mention could be made of every charge and every pastor; fields which seem to yield but little fruitage have been cultivated as carefully and with as much painstaking labor as those which report a larger increase. It has been my privilege to see with mine own eyes the conversion of quite a number of people at the regular quarterly meeting service. The total for the District of conversions, reclamations and entire sanctifications are a few more than 1,800. To God be all the glory. Soul saving has been our chief business, but there have been other interests which have demanded the attention of our preachers. The question of temperance has not been overlooked; some notable victories. Richmond District's southern boundary ary is the National Road, and includes all the towns thereon to the Marion county line. We are glad to report that with but a single exception there is not a town from Richmond to the western line of the District but what already is or is soon to become dry territory. The city of Knightstown, that old, classic city, has concluded by a majority of her citizens that they can get along without the saloons. It is not exaggeration to say that much credit is due to that indefatigible, persistent and capable leader, F. F. Thornburg. The incredible has come to pass. The forces for righteousness, led on by that peerless and intrepid general, W. W. Martin, the enemy of all good has been routed from Greenfield, and when we meet next year in that most beautiful city there will not be a single saloon to hang its shameful sign in view to allure to iniquity and death. A fierce contest was that at New Castle. When the result of the canvass was known it revealed an overwhelming victory for the cause of temperance. Dr. U. S. A. Bridge was the courageous and tireless commander that led the hosts for righteousness. The whisky man fights persistently, but is not more so than the godly man. Other victories no less splendid were won at Shirley and Maxwell, Middletown and Honey Creek. Foremost in these contests were the Methodist preachers.

Westward from the Wayne county line to the boundary of the District not a saloon; to the northwest, following the Pan Handle railroad, after you leave the Wayne county line not a saloon till you reach Anderson; to the northward, along the Grand Rapids railroad, not a saloon the full length of the District. The whole of the north boundary is not yet free, a few places have not yet rightly asserted themselves. Union City, Redkey and Dunkirk still ensnare the feet of the unwary. Richmond and a part of Wayne county seem to be a little slow, but it takes us respectful and self-satisfied folk a little longer to get our enthusiasm up to the explosive point. Just wait a bit; the storm is gathering in that old, rock-ribbed Quaker city and county; the rumble of distant thunder gives warning that the lightning of righteous wrath will strike and smash to pieces the saloons of Richmond and Wayne county. A dry District, and a mighty host for temperance and righteousness.

The membership record has suffered severely in some places from the unofficial ax, the dead limbs being unceremoniously hacked off, presumably to lighten the benevolences. A few pastors still advise persons who are to remove from the charge not to take their membership till after Conference—the result is they soon become dead timber and a hindrance and embarrassment. Despite all the losses we will report a substantial gain in membership.

OUR NEEDS.

First. We need a more systematic plan of finance. Loose business methods greatly embarrass the work of the church. The salaries of the preachers are not what the people are able to pay, nor in just proportion to the service rendered. Some advance has been made. Practically the same territory, though differently arranged, paid for ministerial support $2,000 more this year than they did last. Too many of our dear people look at the church as a charity institution, and the minister as an object of benevolence rather than a workman deserving wages.

Second. We should have better organization of our officiary. Too little emphasis is given to the importance of office-bearing in the church. I have found names on the official roster that have not been responded to a single time when called in a quarterly conference. Too busy to attend quarterly conference; cannot take time to collect quarterage; but plenty of time to attend lodge and other business engagements. One good, consecrated, sensible steward will solve the financial difficulties of most any charge.

Third. A deeper spiritual consecration to the work of God on the part of the pastor and people. "Give us a Holy Ghost pastor" is the cry of the laymen. Give us a spirit filled, class meeting going, prayer meeting attending, benevolent giving, always to be counted on men and women in the churches, is the heart cry of the faithful minister.

"Deeper yet, deeper yet,
Into the crimson flood;
Deeper yet, deeper yet,
Under the precious blood."

The year has been a busy one, but in most part delightful. Our parsonage homes have not been visited by death. Some serious sickness has made anxious hearts, but all have been spared.

We report a large increase in pastors' families. Seven children, five boys and two girls, have come to gladden the homes of our pastors. Sons have been born to Brothers Godwin, Wade, Greenwalt, Loveless and Zerbe; daughters to Brothers Rehl and Hile.

Brother J. O. Bills has been busy helping the brethren, always acceptable and is highly respected and greatly beloved by the people of Lewisville, and Sister Bills is a very important factor in the church.

Dr. Stabler, the dignified, Christian gentleman, has the unbounded confidence of the church at Greenfield. When health and weather permit, he is found in his place, loyal and responsive.

Dr. Mahin, the theologian, never was in greater favor than at the present time. There are no complaints on the part of the people, but he complains of not having opportunity to preach his new sermons as fast as he makes them.

Brother Forkner is in love with his pastor, and makes himself as useful as he can, with existing infirmities. May the Lord temper the winds for these servants of God.

If time permitted, I could speak in praise of every man of the Richmond District and of their homes. The kindnesses shown the Presiding Elder have far exceeded his deserts. With thanksgiving to God for unnumbered blessings and the privilege of toiling with these noble consecrated men I am content.

"One more year's work for Jesus,
How sweet the work has been,
To tell the story,
To show the glory
Where Christ's flock enters in.
Lord, if Thou be near,
We'll serve another year."

WABASH DISTRICT.

B. S. Hollopeter, Presiding Elder.

For six years the Wabash District has been presided over by a man whose stainless life and faithful labors set a high standard for us to follow. The name and saintly influence of Dr. E. L. Semans will live long as a blessing to the cause of Christ on the Wabash District.

At the last Conference thirty-two pastors were appointed and three Charges left to be supplied. Rev. Arlington Singer was secured for Liberty Mills, and Rev. Marshall E. Thompson for Huntington Circuit, and Rev. Clark M. Lantis for Warren Circuit.

Rev. J. E. Young, who was appointed to the Burket charge ,by the consent of the Bishop, gave up his charge early in June, and Rev. Charles F. Brindley was secured to supply the same.

Rev. C. E. Parsons, of Grace Church, Marion, because of throat trouble found it necessary to seek a warmer climate. He arranged for an exchange with Rev. J. S. Kirk, of Datona Beach, St. John's River Conference. Bishop McDowell made the transfers and they entered upon their new fields of labor October 1. Brother Parsons reports that the change has greatly benefited his health, and Brother Kirk is exceedingly popular at Grace Church. The congregations have doubled and he has doubled his benevolences. His return to the charge for another year is greatly desired. A much needed parsonage will be built there during the coming year.

Rev. A. W. Greenman, our pastor at Fairmount, gave up his work January 1st to become our Wabash District missionary to Rome, Italy. Bishop Berry making the transfer to the Italy Conference. The Bishop also changed Rev. Herbert S. Nickerson of St. Paul, Fort Wayne, to Fairmount, and Rev. C. M. Hobbs, of Roanoke, to St. Paul, Fort Wayne. Rev. Joseph S. Bain, a student in Garrett Biblical Institute was secured to supply Roanoke. Dr. Greenman's work at Fairmount was most acceptable to the people there and they were exceedingly loathe to lose him as their pastor, but the work has not suffered in any way. The people are delighted with their present pastor. A new church enterprise has been launched and will no doubt be completed before another year.

The pastor at Roanoke has heeded the advice of his people and followed a long cherished desire of his own heart by taking to himself a preacher's lovely daughter for a wife. Rev. Arlington Singer, the pastor at Liberty Mills, was also fortunate in securing a splendid helpmeet during the year.

Mrs. J. T. Fettro, wife of our pastor at Andrews, after weeks of suffering, bid adieu to earthly friends and time October 12, 1907, and went home to the Heavenly Father. She was a most beautiful character and a true companion of our bereaved brother.

Gladness came to the home of Brother and Sister Lesh, of Point Isabel, and Brother and Sister Hower, of Mentone, by the coming of little ones. Both gladness and sorrow came to Brother and Sister Kirk, of Grace Church, Marion, because a little one only tarried a day to cheer them.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS.

The church enterprise at Markle came to a most successful and gratifying conclusion on June 9, 1907, when a splendid building was dedicated to the worship of God. The building is of pressed brick and Bedford stone; of Gothic architecture, finely frescoed, has beautiful art glass windows, a fine auditorium and lecture room, class rooms, and all is finished in the most modern and appropriate way. It is the best building for the size of the town I have ever seen. The entire cost was a little over $18,000. Rev. Dr. Parr, our expert dedicator, had charge of the dedication and raised $9,000 during the day.. In the management of this enterprise there was the most hearty co-operation between the pastor, Rev. J. A. Sprague, and the official board. So well was it managed that the church now owes but $3,800, with $5,000 in good subscriptions to cover it. The pastor has allowed no part of the work to be neglected. This church has truly entered upon a new career under his masterful leadership. It became a station at the beginning of the year and put the salary at $1,000, which is $300 more than this class ever paid while on a circuit. The salary has been paid promptly, and notwithstanding the large amount of money raised for building purposes the benevolences have not suffered, but have all been paid in full, with $45 extra on missions.

The church at Lagro has been thoroughly overhauled; a new furnace has been put in, new seats, new papering, painting, and in every way adapting it to the needs of this growing congregation. The amount of these improvements was $1,089. All but $70 of this has been paid for and this is provided. The pastor, Brother S. B. Stookey, led in this very successful work. At a re-opening, January 5, the Presiding Elder assisted in raising the money.

At Andrews charge both churches have been decorated at a cost of of $260. Rev. J. T. Fettro is closing the fourth year of a very successful pastorate here.

A new parsonage has been purchased by the people of Home Park, and the new pastor who is sent to Ninth Street and Home Park will find a comfortable home in which to live.

The new church at Fletcher Chapel on the Marion Circuit has been completed and was dedicated September 15. The cost of this church was $4,000. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Bowen, made careful preparation for the dedication, and $1,600 was raised by the Presiding Elder that day. Over $3,000 was paid in cash this year on this enterprise, leaving but $600 of debts. This is covered by $860 of good subscription. Brother Bowen has not been idle this year, and in consequence all the churches in his charge have been receiving attention. Highland Avenue was raised and a cement wall put under it and plans made for a basement. A new furnace was installed and all cost about $800, all of which is paid. Morris Chapel on the same charge was also improved at a cost of $125 and it is paid. Brother Bowen has had the most delightful year of his life, and the people greatly desire his return for another year.

SALARIES.

Many of the charges have realized the need of a better ministerial support and have increased their pastors' salaries. Yet there is great room for improvement in this matter. How some of these pastors get along as well as they do on the meager salary they receive is a continual mystery to me. They pay more for benevolences than any one else and they keep a good pace with the laymen in paying for new churches and on debts. They are expected to dress themselves and their families well and to be ready to entertain their friends and keep sweet on a very small amount of this world's goods. But they do manage to get along, and the young minister can find plenty of the best girls in the land to join them in this self-denying life of the parsonage home.

Settlement Day was observed November 25, 1907, and it proved a decided advantage to both pastor and people. Twenty-four of the charges paid their pastors in full on that date and found little trouble in closing the year with everything paid in full.

Attention has been given to financial plans used by the churches. New and workable methods have been introduced in many of the charges which we feel sure will work a great change in the paying of the pastors. The people seem to profit more by the preaching of a pastor who is paid in full to date, and many of his critics are often silenced by this happy condition. Good financial plans, promptly and faithfully used, have greatly helped the cause in many of the charges.

OUR DISTRICT MISSIONARY.

At the District Epworth League Convention, held in Warren last June, a resolution was adopted asking the Presiding Elder and District President to arrange for some special missionary work for the Leagues of the District to undertake. About the same time Bishop Burt sought the services of Rev. A. W. Greenman, D. D., of Fairmount, to act as the treasurer of the Italian Mission and to do special work in the city of Rome. Dr. Greenman's long experience as treasurer of our South African work and his ready command of the languages required made his appointment to this very important work a most fitting thing. After bringing the matter before the pastors of the District they advised that we undertake the support of Dr. Greenman as our special work. It was then arranged with the missionary board at New York and Dr. Greenman sailed January 4 to his new field of labor. He now is treasurer of the Italy mission, pastor of the English church there and Presiding Elder of a Dist. t. The gifts by the Epworth League and individual gifts supplemented by the offerings of Self-denial week have been about sufficient to pay the salary for the first year. At the same time the other benevolent collections have not suffered in consequence, but will show a gratifying increase.

BENEVOLENCES.

Most of the pastors planned wisely and well for their benevolent collections, and the result in most cases is a fair index to the conviction of their own hearts on these great causes. The pastor who finds excuses for putting off his collections till the close of the year, is then forced to hunt for an excuse for failing in realizing results.

Because of the change in the plans of our benevolent institutions it is difficult to compare the results with previous years. A very few charges fall below last year in their total for all the regular causes. In some cases as much credit is due to pastors who held their own as to others who made good increase. From information gathered from the pastors' reports to me there will be a total increase of about $2,000 for all causes. Among those who contributed most to this gratifying increase we might single out some whose charges doubled and some who made still larger increase, but the credit belongs really to a larger number than this would include.

The pastors of the District have been preaching real missionary sermons and teaching God's plan of giving, and the people not only respond with their money but they are profited in spiritual things. We are coming more and more to realize that God's word faithfully presented will not return to Him void. It is also becoming apparent that the difference in talent for the work of God is largely eclipsed by the difference in the energy we put into the work.

REVIVALS AND MEMBERSHIP.

The churches of the District have been greatly helped by the special meetings held during the year. The number of conversions reported is 1051, the number received on probation is 827, and the number received from probation and by letter is 1,104. The increase in full members is 765.

At Huntington Rev. J. A. Beatty carefully organized his church for a four weeks' meeting. It continued six weeks with most gratifying results. The pastor did all the preaching and directed the whole movement. This great church rallied and 170 were converted, and over 100 joined the church on probation and many by letter. The Men's League, the Epworth League, the Sunday School, the Women's societies and the Official Board were at work and were profited accordingly.

There were 95 converted on the Churubusco charge where Rev. H. W. Miller is pastor, and his great revivals of last year on this charge proved their real value by the large increase in full members reported this year. Brother S. B. Stookey has had 80 conversions, and his benevolences tripled at Lagro, but he labored beyond his strength and suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Sunday morning, March 15th, from which he is slowly recovering. We need not go into our past history to find men who literally give their lives for the cause; we can find them in our own midst.

Rev. Somerville Light, of First Church, Marion, is having a continuation of his revival of last year. It has become a common thing to see people converted there at the regular services. Every department of the church is wide awake and active. The benevolences are far in advance of last year, and there is a unanimous request for his return.

Rev. E. E. Wright has had a good revival at Silver Lake, and his return is desired.

Rev. W. E. Murray, of La Fontaine, has had the best year of his life—good revivals, his benevolences doubled, and a unanimous request for his return. Brother E. F. Albertson closes his fifth year at Columbia City with the good will of everybody. He has done well. Brother G. B. Work closes his seventh year at Wabash Street, Wabash. He found nothing there but a vacant lot and a mortgage, and leaves a beautiful $18,000 church and a good parsonage. He has the sincere love of this splendid people.

Rev. A. S. Preston has gained the high esteem of the people of First Church, Wabash, by his splendid ability as a preacher. He has labored under difficulties because of affliction of himself and family, but he labored well. His benevolences will be above any previous year. Brother Preston desires to rest for a time to regain his health. Rev. G. H. Hill has had a good year at North Manchester, and has greatly endeared himself to the people. They ask unanimously for his return, but he feels his work in the active ranks is done and he desires to be relieved of the responsibility of a charge. Brother Hill is a faithful minister of Jesus Christ and has well earned the rest for which he asks.

Brother J. W. Cain led in a successful remonstrance against the saloons of Warren. Brother M. Pell did the same at Van Buren. Brother E. E. Lutes, at South Whitley, Brother A. H. Backus, in his ward at Marion, Brother S. B. Stookey, at Lagro, Brother D. I. Hower, at Mentone, J. A. Sprague, at Markle, M. F. Stright, at Larwill, and Brother H. W. Miller gainer a great victory at Churubusco, but the fight was real and he carried a black eye for some time as evidence of its realness, but the saloons had to go.

We have had a devoted set of men with whom to labor, and we have done our best to promote the Kingdom of Christ in the District. We have not seen as much accomplished as we desired, but we are thankful for every soul that has been converted and for every one added to the church during the year. I have shared the labors of my brethren to the extent of my ability. They have given me their constant and hearty co-operation in all my plans to further the interests of the District. They have been thoughtful for my comfort and convenience. For all of which I am devoutly thankful.

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

Whereas, The net gain in our membership this quadrennium has reached about three times the increase of the previous quadrennium, and,

Whereas, A tidal wave of salvation has reached our schools and colleges through the spiritual leadership of the Commission on Aggressive Evangelism, and,

Whereas, The spiritual emphasis at the sessions of our annual conferences has been accentuated by the same leadership.

Resolved, That we memorialize the next General Conference to continue the evangelistic forward movement the coming quadrennium.

Resolved, That, as a Conference, we pledge ourselves to renewed diligence in soul winning; we respectfully suggest that our Presiding Elders organize their districts for systematic and co-operative pastoral evangelism.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation of the presence of Dr. J. P. Brushingham, General Secretary of the General Conference Commission, through whose initiative the Los Angeles General Conference placed itself on record in the present movement.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Old Book stands. The most potent agency for its distribution is the American Bible Society. Organized in 1816 for the purpose of giving the Scriptures to the people without note or comment and at lowest price, it meets the needs of the Church in supplying the most needy fields. In our mission fields, among immigrants, in hospitals, prisons, almshouses, the army, the navy, among the blind, the poor, to needy Sunday Schools, city missions, home missions, it distributes the word of God, either free or at low cost.

The work of this society is indispensible to the efficiency of our mission work. By translating and publishing the Bible and portions of it, our societies are relieved of what would be grievous burdens. Every dollar given to this society helps to further work of all our societies.

We, therefore, commend it to our people, and plead for a hearty and generous support for this most worthy agency, for the spread of the pure Gospel of our Lord.

We further recommend that the apportionment be the same as last year.

CHURCH AND PARSONAGE INSURANCE.

It is with pleasure we note the phenomenal increase in the business of the National Mutual Church Insurance Company, and we, the Committee on Church and Parsonage Insurance, are satisfied that our own company ranks among the safest and best of insurance companies, and from the fact of its cheapness we deem it the best economy and wisdom for the members of this Conference to take advantage of this company in the insurance of all our church and parsonage property. Signed,

C. H. MURRAY,
C. B. SWEENEY.

BOARD OF CONTROL OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Again we affirm our confidence in the Epworth League as an organization admirably adapted to the religious, intellectual and social needs of the young people.

We rejoice in the extending influence of the organization, and we recognize in it one of the most potential factors in the building up of Christ's Church.

Many needs are apparent in the work of the Epworth League.

We express it as our conviction that more effort must be made to keep the Epworth League a distinctly young people's society.

We are further assured that greater attention must be given to the training of leaders, a more hearty co-operation of Presiding Elders and pastors is absolutely necessary to the larger success of the Epworth League.

We heartily commend the effort to hold an Epworth League Institute for the young people of Indiana at Winona Lake, July 21-25, 1908, and we pledge our earnest support.

The Board of Control elects the following officers for the coming year.

Rev. Chesteen Smith, President.
Rev. B. Earle Parker, Secretary.

DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUE PRESIDENTS.

CHURCH LITERATURE AND PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

Whereas, year by year, we realize that the great object of the church is the development of Christian character, and the reading of good literature plays no small part in the formation of such character; and,

Whereas, Since our great publishing house, organized in 1789, on a borrowed capital of $600.00, has grown to a capital of $4,000,000.00, and with a business amounting to $1,425,755.72 in 1907; showing an increase of $23,297.31, convinces us beyond all doubt of the wisdom of its management from a business standpoint; and,

Whereas, We are distributing to our Superannuates annually larger dividends; and,

Whereas, Our publishing house is prepared to furnish any book or periodical suitable to go into the homes of our people; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we urge upon our people the importance of purchasing their supplies from their own publishing house, the Western Methodist Book Concern.

Resolved, That we congratulate our pastors on the fact that a great per cent. of our Sunday Schools are using our literature, and would urge that every pastor see to it that our own periodicals be used in preference to all others, while not always the cheapest, they are assuredly the best.

C. E. LINE, Chairman,
W. C. ASAY, Secretary.

CLASS MEETINGS.

Inasmuch as the Class Meeting has been a valuable means of grace and a benediction to our Church; and our people are in danger of losing its benefits by indifference, we recommend most heartily that its importance be emphasized and attendance by all our people be urged by our pastors and leaders in public and private.

We recommend also that good, pious, consecrated men and women, full of wisdom and prompted by loyalty, and devotion to the Church, be appointed to the office of leaders.

Also, inasmuch as the leader may be a great help to the pastor, we recommend he visit extensively the members of his class, and keep the pastor informed as to their individual needs.

We recommend further that young people with the proper characteristics be appointed to labor under the direction of the leader that they may be properly trained for future usefulness as leaders.

We would also urge upon our leaders the persuance of the course of study that they might be capable leaders.

SCHUYLER C. NORRIS, Chairman,
WILL E. HAMILTON, Secretary,
C. H. WILKINSON.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We, your committee, to examine the Journals of Districts, respectively report:

There have been submitted to us the Journals of the sessions of the Muncie, Fort Wayne and Goshen District Conferences. We have carefully examined these Journals, and find that they were well and carefully kept. We heartily approve of binding these Journals in book form, with all the reports bound in for permanent preservation. We especially approve of those Journals which were indexed and paged. Those which were typewritten are especially worthy of commendation. We are greatly pleased to see the great improvement of late years in the arrangement and general ensemble of these Journals.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY CAUSE.

Christ's mission to earth is His commission to His disciples. By anticipation He went before us to all nations. We are sent whither He Himself would come. Our message is His whole Gospel—His humiliation; His sufferings, sacrifice; His glorification. Our equipment is His presence and power—the Holy Spirit. Our service is to continue until all the earth shall know Him. He will not fail us. Will we fail Him? The Missionary spirit of the time is rife with hope of speedy conquest. This spirit must be our personal heart possession. Modern equipment for ocean travel, and the pioneer of discovery have laid at the feet of the conquering King their latest and greatest achievements to subserve the highest interests of His Kingdom. By the former "to go" is an easy task; by the latter, "where to go" is before our eyes.

With gratitude to God we rejoice in the aggressiveness of every movement giving evidences of the fulfillment of Christ's great commission. To name in part: First—Christian educational life imbued with the Missionary Spirit. Second—Increased information, consecration and giving, on the part of our people. Third—Enlarged planning to facilitate world-wide victory for our Lord.

We pledge our Conference to hearty support of every plan and agency honored of God to forward the cause of our Christian Missions. Anticipating the purpose of our Discipline in providing the Annual Conference Missionary Service, to spread intelligence and to arouse enthusiasm, which will result in larger giving of money, and to the consecration of our youth to Missionary work, we recommend and urge that there be such re-adjustment of the sub-district Missionary convention plan as to more effectively reach a larger number of our laymen in the interest of our benevolences.

We place special emphasis upon the widest possible dissemination of Missionary information in each pastoral charge, by sermon, and by printed literature now so abundantly provided.

To solve the problem of easily meeting the Missionary apportionments and all claims of Christian benevolence, we particularly emphasize the importance of Scriptural tithing and an enlarged education on this Christian privilege and duty.

We rejoice in the co-laboring agency of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and with them profoundly thank God for His favor upon their wise plans and faithful work in our Christ's world-wide fields.

C. A. ROWAND, President,
H. H. HOCKER, Secretary.

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION.

We, your committee on Home Missions and Church Extension, submit the following report:

First. We fully appreciate the unique position held at this time by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. America today is the great battleground of the world's civilization and Christianization.

As though it were too much for us to go, God in His providence is sending or gathering the people to us from among all nations, kindreds and tongues—African, Asiatic and European. Thus God is practically throwing into our lap the greatest opportunity of the Christian era, in which we have, so to speak, foreign missions and home embodied in one.

Second. We heartily indorse the action of the General Conference when consolidating the two great branches of Home Missions, for placing it on an equality of claim with the foreign board. And we urge our brethren to support this claim to the utmost of their ability.

We note with a sense of profound concern a tendency among some of our members to overlook this equality of claim, as evidenced by some of the reports of this year, and we beg you to carefully consider the full import of this cause that lies at the root of all our missionary work church life, influence and power, as well as the safety and salvation of our country and church. In view of the manifest opportunity embodied in this, the greatest of church enterprises of the present day, we urge the church to do its best to meet all claims and otherwise help in every way possible this great work.

Third. We commend the help rendered by this board to the San Francisco churches, and we regret that the aid could not be doubled or even quadrupled. We also include the help rendered in the Southland, and all over the great frontier, and in the large cities, and trust that our ministers and people will yet make greater things possible for the church, the people and our God. Respectfully submitted,

C. CLAUD TRAVIS, Chairman,
E. J. MAGOR, Secretary,

INDIANA HOSPITAL AND DEACONESS HOME.

We are delighted with the completion and equipment of the Administration and other buildings of our great hospital at Indianapolis, and with the intense interest manifested by our people in its approaching dedication.

We pledge ourselves to aid the hospital in every possible way, and recommend that all the churches observe Sunday, the 26th of April, as a day for the giving of a thank offering.

We commend the work done by the Rev. William D. Parr, D. D., and appreciate his untiring efforts in behalf of this great institution.

We recommend that Albert B. Cline be elected as a trustee of the Methodist Hospital and Deaconess Home of Indiana to succeed himself, for a term of three years. We commend the wisdom of the trustees as shown in their selection of Miss Morilla Williams as superintendent of the hospital.

KREITZINGER FUND.

To Rev. Joseph Berry, Presiding Bishop, and the Members of the Sixty-fifth North Indiana Conference. Brethren:

As trustees of the Kreitzinger Fund, we have the honor to submit the following report:

Balance on hand last report	$195.29
Interest added in July, 1907	5.85
Total	$201.14

This stock having matured, as instructed at your last session, your committee re-invested this amount and purchased four shares prepaid stock in the Wabash Valley Loan and Savings Association for $200, and with a membership fee of $2.00, makes the cost of the investment $202.00. The interest is added at each interest-bearing period and is compounded until the stock matures at $400.00.

Since your last session Mr. A. M. Gibson, one of the trustees representing the Wabash Street M. E. Church, passed away, leaving a vacancy on the committee from that charge, which should be filled at this session.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. CREIGHTON,
SAMUEL SHOLTY,
Trustees.

METHODIST MEMORIAL HOME FOR THE AGED.

We, your committee on The Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, do hereby recommend:

1. That we accept the further offer of Brother and Sister William Chopson, extending the time one year in which to raise the money required to claim their gift.

2. That a Board of Trustees be elected by this Conference for the Methodist Memorial Home for the Aged, a majority of whom shall be members of the North Indiana Conference, which Board shall be authorized to hold and control all moneys collected, and such as shall be collected, all bonds, all lands, and all other assets, which shall be secured by the Field Secretary or otherwise. Said Board of Trustees to prepare and file articles of incorporation at the earliest possible date.

3. That the trustees be empowered to consider and act upon any other proposition for the establishment of such home.

4. That a Field Secretary be appointed whose salary shall be $1,500 and house rent, printing, postage and traveling expenses—total salary and expenses not to exceed $2,000. Said salary to be paid quarterly by the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees from money collected by the Field Secretary.

5. In view of the splendid work done in the capacity of Field Secretary the past year, by Rev. M. A. Harlan, we request his appointment to this position.

6. That the following persons be elected as the Board of Trustees:

Clerical—C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, F. G. Browne, J. A. Beatty, F. P. Morris, J. K. Cecil.

Laymen—C. C. Cartwright, C. L. Shull, A. B. Cline, E. P. Miller, T. R. Black.

7. That we as pastors will open our pulpits to the Field Secretary for the presentation of interests of this cause, and we will do all we can to create a deep interest in this movement in order to bring to pass its earliest possible consummation.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

Your Committee on Parsonage and Furniture beg leave to report that we have carefully read the report of last year and desire its reaffirmation as follows:

We, the committee, view with great satisfaction the progress being made in the attempt to provide a parsonage home upon every charge within the bounds of the North Indiana Conference, and to add to the convenience, comfort and beauty of the home.

Resolved, That the Presiding Elder be requested at the first Quarterly Conference of each year to appoint a committee of one from each appointment on the Circuits or three from the Stations who shall raise the funds and make necessary repairs, and purchase the heavy furniture under the direction of the Parsonage Trustees and report the same to the Quarterly Conference.

J. L. HUTCHINS,
E. C. DUNN,
L. A. BEEKS,
W. C. BUTTS.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

We, your Committee on Social and Moral Questions, beg leave to submit and reaffirm, with some emendations, and with added emphasis if possible, the following resolutions of last year:

First. That we call upon our people to give their hearty co-operation for the salvation of society as truly as for that of the individual person, recognizing that without the re-construction of society according to the standards and ideals of Christ, the Kingdom of God can not fully come.

Second. That as a church we place ourselves on record against all the social and economic injustice of the home. We deplore anarchy equally in high and low classes of society. We call upon our people for intense loyalty and devotion to the cause of law enforcement and its reverence and honor.

Third. That in all matters of dispute between capital and labor, we earnestly beg of our people to remember the principles and duties of Christian Brotherhood and to order their conduct in the holy light thereof.

Fourth. We believe the Ten Commandments are still in force. That the Sabbath was made for man and that the full development of man's highest nature needs its most sacred observance. We will use our influence by te aching, by example, by encouraging the enactment of laws looking to a better observance of God's Day, to counteract the pernicious influences which tend to rob men of the day of rest and worship. We will teach our people the evil effects of Sunday trains, Sunday papers and Sunday diversions.

Fifth. That we emphasize the importance of Paragraph, No. 248 of the Discipline, and that we, as a Conference, ask the delegates elected to the General Conference at Baltimore to vote to retain the same.

Sixth. That we will not sanction methods of raising money for the support of the church that are not in harmony with the Word of God and the Discipline of our Church.

Seventh. That, realizing as we do the awful danger to the race, the nation and the home from the results of licentiousness, race suicide and wholesale divorce, we urge the press and the pulpit to speak in no uncertain terms against these gigantic evils.

J. K. CECIL, Chairman,
J. B. COOK,
J. F. BAILEY,
FRANK P. MORRIS,
J. A. RULEY, Secretary.

SUSTENTATION.

1. The Committee on Sustentation, recognizing the continued and increasing need of better support for the pastors of our weaker charges, because of increased cost of living, recommend that no salary be less than Six Hundred Dollars ($600).

2. We do not wish or expect that any charge will do less than its utmost to reach this standard of support for its own pastor, or that this fund shall weaken the efforts of any charge to that end.

4. We recommend that the amount of $4,000 be apportioned this year to the several districts, and that the funds collected be applied by a committee of three selected by the Presiding Elder, of which the Presiding Elder shall be the chairman.

4. The committee has audited the accounts of the several district committees and find them correct, and respectfully submit the following statement of receipts and distribution.

TEMPERANCE.

We rejoice in the widespread wave of temperance interest which is now sweeping over the land. Steadily, surely and even rapidly the forces of righteousness, which have been gaining momentum during the past years, are now moving on with cyclonic power and the liquor dealers, in terror and dismay, are seeking some means by which they may escape the storm. They see the handwriting on the wall. They realize their traffic is doomed. In former years they had no fears, for the political influence of the temperance forces was too insignificent to be reckoned with. But now all is changed. The two great political parties of our States, in their recent conventions, adopted temperance planks in their platforms which, only a few years ago, would have been treated as absurd by either of them. Temperance has become an issue in politics.

We are devoutly thankful for our present temperance laws, but we want more. We request our next General Assembly to give us, in addition to the laws we already have, a county local option law.

We will not be satisfied, however, with anything short of constitutional prohibition for our State, and absolute legal prohibition of the liquor traffic for our nation.

We reaffirm our confidence in the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union as strong agencies for the final overthrow of the liquor traffic.

We deeply regret the policy of delay in the consideration of the Littlefield-Carmack Interstate Liquor bill on the part of our National Congress. The manifest injustice of allowing liquor dealers of license states to ship liquors to customers in prohibition states and in communities where the traffic is forbidden by local option, is so great as to demand immediate treatment. We are not impressed with the plea that this proposed legislation is unconstitutional. That is for the Supreme Court to determine, and we submit that if it is unconstitutional, that fact renders a national prohibition law as an immediate necessity, and we know that such law has in many decisions been held constitutional. We, therefore, demand the immediate enactment of the pending legislation.

We are in hearty accord with the law-enforcement policy of Governor J. Frank Hanly, and firmly believe that with a determined purpose on the part of the Church, and the help of God, and the civil authorities, it will be possible, in the near future, to place Indiana in the column of Prohibition States.

We call upon all our people to abstain from the use of tobacco in any form, and will lovingly urge them not to handle it as an article of merchandise.

We ask the Committee on Program for the next session of our annual Conference, following the custom of this and preceding years, to place the temperance anniversary on some evening of the Conference session.

We have listened with interest and pleasure to the masterful address of Rev. E. S. Shumaker, State Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, and pledge ourselves to aid in working out the program of the League, which will mean constitutional prohibition for Indiana in 1912.

In accordance with paragraph 434 of our Discipline, we recommend for officers of the Conference Temperance Society the following: President, J. O. Bills; Vice-President, J. F. Bailey; Secretary, David Wells; Treasurer, Geo. H. Myers.

We also recommend that, as far as possible, our churches observe the Fourth of July with appropriate temperance and prohibition services.

We recommend for trustees of the Anti-Saloon League the Rev. O. A. Trabue and the Rev. W. W. Martin.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Secretary of the Preachers' Aid Society of the North Indiana Conference reports as follows:

Total amount of Permanent Fund reported last year	$69,366.25
Total amount of Permanent Fund reported this year	76,966.88
Money loaned on unincumbered real estate	35,325.00
Money loane on approved personal security	825.00
Cash in the hands of the Treasurer	748.48
Estimated value of real estate owned by the Society	16,000.00
Due from Mrs. Chipman's estate	125.00
Good notes in the Secretary's hands	7,878.40
Good subscriptions (written and without conditions)	3,640.00
After death bonds	12,425.00
Total Permanent Fund	$76,966.88
Net gain for the present year	7,600.63

For the several years past there has been reported in "Good notes and accounts in the Secretary's hands," a large number of accounts that the Board this year cuts out of assets from the Permanent Fund. We shall realize on these accounts many hundreds of dollars, doubtless, but we shall include only the amounts paid on them hereafter as assets. These accounts amount to $5,010.

Rev. T. J. Johnson, the General Secretary, reports to us as follows:

Cash received during the year	$1,607.00
Real estate secured	5,500.00
Good notes	2,700.00
After death bonds	1,350.00
Stock and good written subscriptions	3,640.00
Total	$14,797.00
Paid out for salary and other expenses for the year	2,185.97

We have turned over to the Conference for distribution to the Claimants the sum of $1,835.

Several wills have been executed during the year in which the society is remembered with substantial bequests.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The years are fast passing away. We pause for a brief review of the year's work.

We have no bequests to report; neither have we an annuity. We had both last year. However, along the regular lines of auxiliary work the reports are excellent and show consecration and sacrifice on the part of our District and Auxiliary officers and every member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

We have 10 new organizations; 4 women's societies, 2 Standard Bearer companies, 2 King's Herald organizations, and 2 Little Light Bearer organizations. These add 127 new members to our list of more than 4,000 members. Five churches having no organization report money.

We are far short of our aim: "A W. F. M. S. in every charge and every Methodist woman in North Indiana Conference a member." Sixteen life members have been made during the year. Four of our women have been thus honored, six King's Heralds and nine Little Light Bearers.

A beautiful example of consecration to foreign mission work comes from a country charge—Fletcher Chapel—where a devoted mother has made her three children life members.

The largest missionary society in the Conference is the Children's Band at Muncie, numbering 260.

A great stimulus to missionary interest is the United Study of Missions—The Study Course—which is systematically used by a large majority of our societies. Another inspiration is the Winona School of Missions. I trust every W. F. M. S. in our Conference may send at least one representative to this school next June.

One of our most valuable workers, Mrs. L. R. Hartman—former Conference Secretary—has been called home. Others have fallen. Have their places been filled?

Our responsibility is great. The heathen are asking to be taught and must be refused for lack of teachers. We may not all go, but we can help send others.

With gratitude to all who have helped in the work of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. U. WADE, Conference Secretary.

SPECIAL WORK WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

It is with glad hearts that we report our lists of Special Work, not because our lists are as large as they should be, but because our young people as well as our women are becoming more interested in this part of the work of the Foreign Missionary Society, and are becoming better acquainted with the sisters across the sea and are anxious to help in educating the girls and in training the women for active service for the Master. Surely He who said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of these little ones, ye have done it unto me," knows about and appreciates our efforts to advance His Kingdom.

We are now supporting nine regular missionaries, one Zenana worker, ninety scholarships, pay $70.00 for medical work, help in the support of Day Schools, and pay $794.85 toward the Advance Movement.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. A. B. CLINE,

Conference Secretary Special Work.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

We, your committee, recognize the vital importance of the work performed by the various societies of the elect sisters of the church. Not only the spiritual, but the material interests of the church are largely maintained by their consecrated lives and wise and persistent zeal. The contributions of these earnest and devout women are not to be viewed from a financial standpoint alone, but include many sacrifices of time and self, with their untold and far-reaching influence upon the life of the church and the community in general.

As pastors we gladly pledge our support to the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies, their affiliated branches and the Ladies' Aid Society. We will recognize representatives of these societies to the pulpits of our respective charges, and will seek in every legitimate way to encourage and facilitate their work.

Deaconess' Work.

We record with pleasure our testimony to the value of the labors of those elect women who have accepted the holy office of deaconess. Their efforts as co-laborers, in a hitherto largely neglected field, are significant of the aggressiveness of the church in meeting present conditions.

Resolutions.

Whereas, The Discipline, Paragraph 350, Section 2, provides that the Presidents of the Ladies' Aid Societies may be members of the Quarterly Conference;

Therefore, Resolved, That we do hereby memoralize the next General Conference to enact the same legislation for the Presidents of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign Missionary and the Presidents of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Home Missionary Societies. Signed:

J. W. CAIN, DAVID WELLS,
A. S. WOOTON, A. A. TURNER,
H. W. MILLER, M. L. HARDINGHAM,
C. KING, Committee.

STEWARDS AND BOARD OF REVIEW.

Resolved, That the presiding Bishop is hereby requested to appoint a Board of Stewards, consisting of six Effective Elders, who shall be approved by the Conference, and who shall be free from all committee work. The first two shall serve for one year; the second two shall serve for two years, and the third two shall serve for three years. Their successors shall be appointed by the presiding Bishop and they shall be approved by the Conference, and each of them shall serve for a term of three years. If a vacancy occurs it shall be filled at the Conference session in the manner indicated above and shall be for the unexpired part of the term. Each member of the Board shall be subject to re-appointment, but no member shall be appointed for more than three years in any period of six consecutive years. The Conference Minutes shall indicate the year in which each member's term expires.

The "basis of claim" for each applicant fixed by the Board of Stewards shall be carefully examined by a Board of Review, which shall consist of six Elders, neither of whom shall be claimants on the Conference funds, who shall be appointed by the Bishop on the first day of the Conference session and who shall be approved by the Conference.

When the "basis of claim" has been thus examined and approved by the Board of Review and when the entire report of the Board of Stewards shall have been submitted to the Conference, the same shall be acted upon immediately as a whole without amendment and without debate.

BOARD OF EDUCATION, FREEDMAN'S AID AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Under the plan of consolidation ordered by the General Conference of 1904, the Board of Education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday Schools has had committed to it the interests of four former societies, namely:

the Board of Education, the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, the Sunday School Union and the Tract Society. This consolidation has been in operation about fifteen months. This is not long enough to fully test the efficiency of the plan of consolidation.

(1.) The collections on Children's Day for the last year show a substantial advance. During the year 1,969 students were aided from the Student Aid Fund. From the beginning (1873) a total of 15,677 have been aided by loans. During the past year $50,889 was paid back into the treasury of the Society by beneficiaries; since 1873, a total of $386,815. The Church has received large returns in the service of those it has helped to a better education. Moreover, the annual observance of Children's Day has inspired thousands of young people to go to higher institutions of learning.

(2.) The income for Freedman's Aid work shows a decrease because of the present plan of presentation. In the meantime the fixed charges for the support of our schools in the South have unavoidably increased, and the changing conditions and general educational advance in the South makes the improvement of the work of our schools imperative. The great investment which the Church has made in these schools can not be made productive except by an added expense. There is an immediate and urgent necessity for a larger liberality toward this great work, which means so much to the colored race.

(3.) The work of the Sunday School is growing in importance in the sight of the Christian world. It has indefinite possibilities of expansion and fruitfulness. It represents the chief opportunity of the Church in early religious education. All the signs of the times indicate that we are entering upon a formative era in religious effort. The needs of this department demand that its resources shall be greatly enlarged.

In taking and reporting the collections for this society a clear understanding of the following points will prevent confusion:

(1.) The total apportionment for the various interests represented is $500,000.

(2.) The collection on Children's Day goes entirely to the Student Aid Fund, and should be sent promptly and separately to 220 West Fourth St., Cincinnati, O., or to 150 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

(3.) The general collection for the Society taken from the congregation is divided between the Freedman's Aid and the Sunday Schools in the ratio of two to one. This division is made by the treasurer.

We urge the observance of these special days in the interest of the causes with which they are connected, and the taking of the general collection from all our congregations.

Theological Schools.

We earnestly urge all our young ministers to attend some one of our theological schools. In this day of unsettled religious belief it is absolutely necessary that we be able to give a reason for the faith that is within us. We can best become established in the great fundamentals of the Christian religion by being trained by the great masters in the various fields of theology.

We call attention to the Drew Theological Seminary at Madison, N. J., whose location is unsurpassed. It is affiliated with both Columbia and New York Universities and students of the Seminary can matriculate at either of these universities without charge.

Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Illinois, and Boston School of Theology, of Boston, Mass., are also great institutions and are recommended to the consideration of all the young men of our Conference.

DePauw University.

In this annual report, we note with extreme delight and gratification that, despite the depressed financial condition into which the whole country has fallen, there has been a steady increase in both student attendance and gifts and bequests to this splendid institution, DePauw University.

While no bequests may be announced here, yet it is definitely known that wills and after-death bonds guaranteeing to the endowment large increase have been executed, and never in the history of the University has the student body been so large and enthusiastic.

In January, 1908, ground was broken for the splendid $50,000 library building made possible by the gift of $50,000 from Mr. Andrew Carnegie.

We again commend the administration of the Revs. Drs. Edwin H. Hughes and Salem B. Towne, and express our confidence that, in their hands, not only the material interests of the institution are safe, but the intellectual, moral and spiritual interests of our sons and daughters as well. We believe that in all the land there is no safer hands in which we may submit the training of our young men and women than those of the godly management and faculty of this institution. North Indiana Conference has taken first place in her liberal financial support, and we again urge every pastor to see to it that no part of the apportionment to his charge for DePauw University be left unpaid. We recommend that 15c per member in full connection be apportioned to the charges for this cause for next year.

Taylor University.

This institution, located at Upland, and owned by the National Association of Local Preachers (of the M. E. Church), the only Methodist educational institution within the bounds of our Conference, named for the great missionary of Africa, deserves our recognition and support. The high moral and religious standard maintained makes it a safe place for young people. The faculty has recently been strengthened by the choice of young men as teachers and the election of Rev. Monroe Vayhinger, B. D., of the Indiana Conference, as President.

Illinois Woman's College.

We are pleased to hear of the growing prosperity of the Illinois Woman's College, which is located at Jacksonville, Ill., which is the only distinctly woman's college under the auspices of the Methodist Church in the Mississippi Valley. The course of study embraces a full college course. The enrollment this year is greater than in any former year. The teachers in all the departments are of a high grade. Parents can rest assured that the health, intellectual and religious culture will receive the most careful attention.

We earnestly recommend that the parents who are going to send their daughters to a woman's college consider the advantages of sending them to the Illinois Woman's College.

The Woman's College of Baltimore.

The purpose of this institution is to give special care in preparation of young women to meet the responsibilities of womanhood. The curriculum is equal to the best. The teachers are competent. It's work proves its worth. We commend it to our people.

American University.

It is gratifying to note the confidence with which the officers of the American University move forward this work. We commend it to the liberality of our people. We pledge to it our favor and support. We know that the services of our brother, F. M. Stone, will greatly promote the university and be an honor to the Conference.

Trustees and Visitors.

We recommend that W. H. Charles, Marion, be elected a trustee of DePauw University to succeed himself; that C. E. Line be elected a visitor to DePauw University for a term of three years, beginning September 1, 1908; also, the following visitors: F. P. Morris, to Drew Theological Seminary; J. A. Beatty and L. M. Krider, to Garrett Biblical Institute; W. M. Nelson, to Boston School of Theology; C. W. Shoemake, to Illinois Woman's College; F. M. Stone, to Woman's College; T. M. Hill and C. J. Graves to Taylor University.

RESOLUTIONS

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

(1.) We desire first to express our sincere appreciation of the careful planning and painstaking efforts of the Rev. C. C. Cissell, D. D., and his co-workers of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Anderson, Ind. The superior accommodations provided by this spacious and beautiful church have been the delight of all who have attended the Conference. We include in this note of appreciation other pastors and other churches who have contributed to our comfort and to the success of the Conference.

(2.) We feel ourselves greatly indebted to the banks for their courtesy; to the press for excellent reports, and to the musicians for the splendid music provided.

(3.) The spiritual life of both ministers and people attending the Conference has been greatly stimulated by the faithful, earnest and able ministry of the Rev. John P. Brushingham, D. D., Secretary of Aggressive Evangelism in the Methodist Episcopal Church. His efforts have been greatly supported by the charming and efficient leadership in Gospel song of Prof. M. J. Hill, of Detroit, Mich.

(4.) The Conference hails with delight the presence, presidency and brotherly counsels of our dear Bishop Berry. We trust only a short time will elapse until he will return again as our presiding Bishop. We give praise to God for raising up one of broad and tender sympathy and truly democratic spirit whose wholesome counsel, masterful sermon and inspiring addresses will surely leave a lasting inspiration with the ministers and people who were so fortunate as to hear him.

MEN'S LEAGUE OF THE FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH ELWOOD, IND.

To the North Indiana Annual Conference. Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Believing God's cause calls for more men to enlist themselves in promoting the interests of Methodism, and realizing that the interests of our church demand a concentrated effort on the part of men, we, as a Men's League, an organization of the M. E. Church, consisting of 250 active members, have banded ourselves together with a solemn pledge to our God and church, and hereby agree to aid one another in our Christian life in every way possible. We pledge ourselves to attend the public services of some church as often as we can, and we also promise to take part in the social means of grace whenever possible. Our purpose is to do our best to get men to join our band and to ask them to give their hearts to God. We intend to make our organization a strong arm of power to aid our pastors and advance all the interests of the church. We ask our Heavenly Father's aid in carrying out these worthy purposes.

This pledge was taken by about one hundred men of our city about twenty months ago and has steadily grown to a present membership of 250 members, taken from every walk of life. Our method of worship is unique in its manner, allowing each man to tell his life's experience in his own simple and effective way. We endeavor to educate our men to feel on an equality with each other, and to make every man a speaker. During the present year we have demonstrated our loyalty to our obligation. Some three months ago our pastor, one of the most godly men we have ever known and an ardent member of the League, was stricken with disease and unable to fill the pulpit. We have carried on the work true to our pledge without the assistance of a pastor.

Realizing the necessity of the united efforts of men, we believe it our duty to make our earnest appeal to our next General Conference to give an organization of this nature a distinct reccgnition as one of the auxiliaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Believing we will have your support as well as your earnest prayers, we are, Yours for the Master,

Men's League Committee:

ELMER COX, HERMAN E. HARVEY,
CHAS. D. RUSSELL, H. N. HERRICK, Presiding Elder.
BENJAMIN A. NOBLE,

STATISTICAL BLANKS.

Whereas, Brother T. C. Neal, of our Conference has devised a plan for our Statistical reports known as "Neal's Climax Statistical Card," and,

Whereas, By years of strict trial and due examination we have found it to be far superior in every way to the report blanks furnished by our church, and,

Whereas, Brother Neal offers his invention to the church for adoption free of any expense, be it therefore

Resolved, That we most earnestly urge the adoption of the Climax Card for the use of our world-wide Methodism.

Resolved, That our delegates to the coming General Conference be requested to use the utmost diligence to secure the adoption of the Climax Card by that body.

TIME LIMIT.

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference now in session, do hereby memoralize the General Conference, which will soon begin its deliberations in the city of Baltimore, on the important matter of a Limit to the Pastoral Term, and earnestly request that a suitable Limit to the Term of Pastoral Service be at once restored. And,

Resolved, That we positively instruct our delegates recently elected to support the action of our Lay Electoral Conference taken on last Friday, and join the many conferences which have already placed themselves on record in this way, and vote for the restoration of the Limit to the Pastoral Term when the opportunity comes to them.

MILTON MAHIN G. B. WORK,
GEO. H. HILL, WM. A. GRIEST,
J. K. WALTS, CHARLES E. WHITE,
FRED M. STONE AND OTHERS.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS FUND.

Resolved, That this Conference request of each Presiding Elder that he see that the claim of the Superannuate is paid in full, or in case of failure of any pastor in his district to receive his salary in full he shall see that Superannuated Fund is prorated with that of the pastor and his own salary. G. B. WORK.

DISTRIBUTION OF CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS FUNDS.

Resolved, That hereafter the Board of Stewards be requested to make the distribution of funds privately to each claimant as may be present at the Conference session, the Treasurer of the Board to forward by registered mail the allowance to the absent claimants.

DR. W. D. PARR AND CHURCH DEDICATIONS.

Whereas, We note with much gratitude and pleasure the Providence of God which has sent our beloved brother, William D. Parr, D. D., numerous, urgent and repeated calls to officiate at the dedication of churches and to lead in great philanthropic enterprises, and,

Whereas, His success has been so signal both in caring for the finances and in imparting evangelistic fervor to the churches that a large field has thus been opened to him in the Kingdom of God, be it therefore

Resolved, That we, the members of the North Indiana Conference, hereby express our abiding confidence in him, our appreciation of his work, and our thanks to God for the honor He has conferred in calling him to this work and we hereby request the Bishop to give him such appointment as will allow him to give his time to this field of holy service and we hereby commend him to our entire Methodism.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to the church press. Signed.

LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE RESOLUTIONS.

The undersigned Committee on Resolutions beg leave to report the following:

(1.) We recognize the great and growing proficiency of DePauw University, and recommend the hearty support of our people of this institution of learning.

(2.) Taylor University is an institution located at Upland, within our territory, and belonging to the National Local Preachers' Association of our church, and deserves our recognition and support. We recommend the school as a safe place for our young people. We congratulate the school upon the election of Rev. Monroe Vayhinger, of Hartsville, as President. We would lay the financial needs of the school upon the hearts of the people.

(3.) Article No. 248 shall be retained in the body of the discipline.

(4.) We believe the districting of the Bishops to be desirable.

(5.) We respectfully and earnestly ask you to memoralize the next General Conference to take up the question of a Men's Organization; giving it a place and name under the jurisdiction of our beloved church.

(6.) That the President of such Men's Organization, President of the W. H. M. S. and President of the W. F. M. S. shall be made members of their respective Quarterly Conferences.

(7.) We favor the present mode of selecting Presiding Elders.

(8.) We favor the placing of a Time Limit.

(9.) We approve the appointing of a commission looking toward the union of the two great Methodisms to confer with like commission from the M. E. Church South.

(10.) We hereby indorse any reasonable plan of the Preachers' Aid Society of this Conference to raise a permanent fund, the income from which shall be used to supplement the annual collections for the better support of the Superannuated preachers and those dependent upon them.

Resolved, That we recommend that the delegates to the General Conference be instructed to use all effort to have a change made in the Discipline that will permit part of the collection for the Conference Claimants taken by the charges be collected and paid quarterly—pro rata with the Bishops, Presiding Elders and ministers' claims.

(11.) It is the sense of the Lay Electoral Conference of the North Indiana Conference that the people of the State of Indiana should have submitted to them at the earliest opportunity, with a chance to vote thereon, a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture, sale or use of intoxicating liquors within the state, except for medicinal or scientific purposes. And we heartily commend every effort to obtain temperance legislation and in every way restrict the open saloon. And that we hail with Godspeed the wave of reform, and we hope it will not cease until this awful curse is swept from the face of our land. And that we hereby indorse the efforts of the Anti-Saloon League.

(12.) The thanks of the Lay Electoral Conference is extended to the Central Christian Church for their kindness in tendering their splendid house.

(13.) The thanks of this Conference be extended to the citizens of Anderson for their royal welcome and splendid entertainment.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. MORRISON, SAMUEL SHOLTY,
S. T. WAITE, J. E. POMEROY,
C. M. GREENSTREET, NELLIE E. MASON, Committee.

LECTURES OF JOHN P. D. JOHN.

Never in its history has the North Indiana Conference had occasion for felicitation greater than that afforded by the masterful lectures and addresses delivered at the beginning of each day of the present session by the Rev. John P. D. John, D. D. These addresses are deeply imbedded in the profoundest reverence. They, then, present the last conclusions of science with a rigid adherence to the principles of philosophical research and with a terminology that excludes all confusion from the mind of the hearer. This, with occasional flashes of wit and humor, commands sustained attention. His logical, philosophical and comprehensive statement of religious truths, graphically illustrated by scientific and historic facts, carries great conviction and affords abundant intellectual stimulus and spiritual illumination.

We heartily congratulate the members of any Conference who may be so fortunate as to secure the services of this eminent lecturer and scholar under similar circumstances.

J. A. BEATTY, S. LIGHT.

TRANSFER OF H. B. GOUGH.

Whereas, The North Indiana Conference has no representative in the faculty of DePauw University, and,

Whereas, The Rev. H. B. Gough, of the Illinois Conference, has been elected to a professorship in the University, we hereby extend to him a very earnest invitation to transfer to this Conference.

ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED MINISTERS.

This Association, projected two years ago, completed its organization by adopting a constitution and enrolled 32 retired ministers as members, and elected officers as follows:

W. J. VIGUS, President,
T. STABLER, Vice-President,
P. J. ALBRIGHT, Secretary-Treasurer.

Obituary

MRS. HANNAH LAMB—Hannah Lithwait was born in England, June 29, 1823, and died in Richmond, Ind., May 11, 1907, at the age of 84 years.

She was married in her young womanhood to Mr. John Liggett, a machinist, in Manchester, England. Soon afterwards they came to America and lived in various cities from Canada to New Orleans, and finally in Richmond, Ind. After seventeen years of a most happy married life Mr. Liggett died of consumption in 1863. The tenderness of her affection went out in kindliest ministries during his long illness and all their savings were used in caring for him. After his death she opened a small store, and while in business formed wide acquaintances and friendships, especially among families of influence.

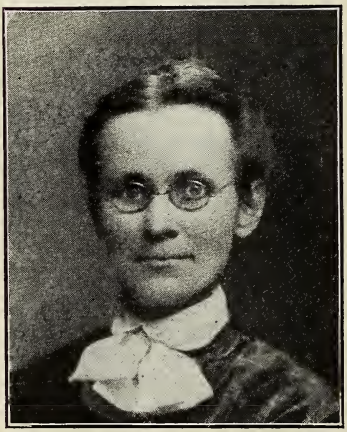
August 18, 1869 ,she was married to Rev. Samuel Lamb, an honored member of this Conference, a man of fine character and fine religious experience. He served four years in the pastorate after their marriage and retiring they made their home in Richmond, where he owned considerable property. Three years later the Master came for him. It was now in this widowhood of thirty years, with the rich, strong character, kindly heart and restless energy she was to do her best work for the church. She was a charter member of the Third M. E. Church, and upon her work as steward and treasurer depended largely the pastor's salary. It was chiefly through her help that the present beautiful church was built in 1892 and the indebtedness met in the hard years that followed. She gave the first one hundred dollars, presented the bell, electric lights and later a comfortable cottage for a parsonage. Day after day she solicited money from her many friends. Part of her property has been deeded to DePauw University with a life lease, and she willed the church her remaining property.

But her financial stewardship was surpassed by the treasure of her heart. In younger life, when coming up the Mississippi river, the boat caught fire. She retired to her room in prayer. Such a great peace and assurance came to her at once that when the terror-stricken people saw her beautiful, shining face the whole number became quieted and they were soon saved. In the stillness of the night her voice might often be heard in audible prayer in her home. At all means of grace her presence and her words were a blessing. She was a life-long Christian and Methodist. She loved to come to Conference, and at many of its sessions was in attendance.

She left no relatives, but friends and neighbors were watchful and careful of her to the last hours of her life. She was affectionately known by all as "Auntie Lamb."

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, May 13, at two o'clock in the Third Church, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Orange S. Harrison, assisted by Dr. T. M. Guild, the Methodist pastors of the city, and the Rev. W. H. Peirce, a former pastor. Large numbers of her friends were in attendance. Her body was tenderly laid to rest in Earlham cemetery, Richmond.

CHAS. H. METTS.



CARRIE ROBINSON M'NARY—Carrie, daughter of the Rev. Joseph Robinson and wife, was born in Wilkesville, Ohio, on the 9th day of September, 1867. She was only a small child when her parents transferred to Kansas, and most of her girlhood life was spent in Leroy, Kansas.

She was married to James B. McNary June 5th, 1889. Very soon after their marriage God very unexpectedly opened the way and he entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the South Kansas Conference, serving first as a supply under the Rev. W. H. Chaffee, Presiding Elder. During this time he and his brother, John, also a minister in that Conference, occupied the same house, as they served adjoining charges, their wives thus forming ties of friendship that lasted until the wife of John passed to her heavenly home and are now blessedly renewed to be no more broken forever.

Brother McNary continued in the South Kansas Conference for six years, when he transferred to the North Indiana Conference in the spring of 1897 and was stationed at Hagerstown. Here he remained three years. His appointments since have been: Eaton, four years; Markland Avenue, Kokomo, two years, and he was serving his second year on Albany charge when Sister McNary was called from labor to reward. In all of the seventeen years of our brother's ministry she has always been a constant companion, comfort and inspiration to her husband, sharing his joy and sorrows with a glad heart and willing mind.

She grew up surrounded by Christian influences, and in the church, and never knew what it was not to be religiously inclined. While attending Baker University, at Baldwin, Kansas, at about the age of 17, she had a definite consciousness of personal relationship with God and was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church into full connection. A few years later she came into the experience of entire sanctification.

Her religious life was never demonstrative, but was always certain and ready for service as her health and strength permitted. In their charges she always made many friends and held them forever thereafter as her warm personal admirers.

She was always interested in every phase of the church's activities, and in a quiet, unostentatious way exerted a very marked influence that accounts for a large part of the success of her husband in his various pastorates.

To her Christ was not only a dear but a real and ever conscious presence, bringing into her life the joy of assured rest. She trusted in Him implicitly and delighted to do His will.

To her were born four children, Irwin Carl, who only remained to cheer them for one month and then went on to await her coming; Garnet, Paul and Baby Lucile, who are now left without her tender presence and care, but who will still have her love. She loved her family with a sincere, pure love, and found one of her greatest joys in doing for them and in training them for God and future usefulness.

We cannot see why one so fully prepared by nature, grace and education to live, should be called so early, and away from her little ones and the side of her husband and from the activities of the church, but our Father knows and to His will we bow in loving submission and wait until faith becomes sight, and the darkness that now surrounds us gives place to an eternal day.

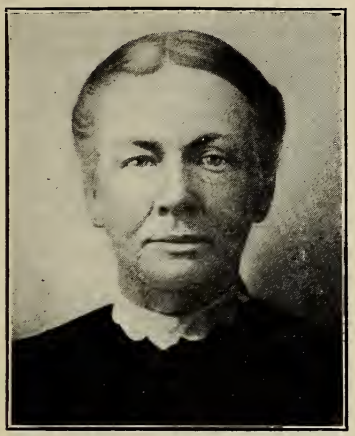
She had been in poor health for about two months, but seemed to be improving, and no one thought that so soon she would slip away from us to be with Jesus, until a little more than twelve hours before she passed away. "Her heart and her flesh failed, but God was the strength of her life and her portion forever." She passed out of this life at 5 o'clock p. m. on Monday, May 20th, 1907. We say she is dead, but she only sleepeth.

"Nothing is dead but that which wished to die; nothing is dead but wretchedness and pain; nothing is dead but what encumbereth galled,
Blocked up the pass and barred from real life; where dwells that wish most ardent of the wise?
Too dark the sun to see it; higher stars too low to reach it;
Death, great death alone, o'er stars and sun triumphant, lands us there."

The funeral services were conducted in the church at Albany, Thursday, May 23d, at 1 p. m., with Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger, Presiding Elder, Muncie District, in charge. After the 91st psalm had been read by Rev. C. E. Line, and 1st Corinthians, 15: 35-58, by Rev. D. V. Williams, prayer was offered by Rev. A. G. Neal. After the reading of the obituary by Rev. Naftzger, Rev. C. U. Wade, Presiding Elder, Fort Wayne District, preached the sermon from Matthew 6: 10: "Thy will be done." The closing prayer was offered by Rev. L. A. Sevits. The body was laid away in the cemetery at Albany, from where it will come forth in the last day clothed in immortality. Our brother has the comfort, not only of divine grace, but also the memory of a wealth of floral offerings from the friends, and the sympathetic presence of twenty members of the Conference at the funeral services.

LESLIE J. NAFTZGER.

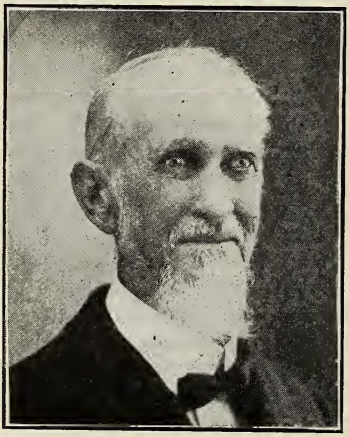


NANCY C. HARVEY—Nancy C. Emry was born in Hancock county, Ind., December 24th 1840, and was called to her reward June 6th, 1907. After more than sixty-six years of traveling life's rugged pathway she has gone to join the ranks of the triumphant hosts in Glory. Her life and death afford a good example of noble, Christian womanhood. Her intimate friends were accustomed to call her mother, for in her were found all the beautiful qualities of true motherhood, unassuming disposition but gave bright evidence of that depth of feeling that comes by the presence of the Spirit of Christ in the heart. Her life was one of frequent sacrifice. No burden seemed too great to bear. The sorrows of others she carried as her own; thus fulfilling the injunction, "Bear ye one another's burdens." It seemed so natural for her to do good and she was so unpretentious about it that one was reminded of the words: "Let not your left hand know what your right hand doeth."

Immediately after the close of the civil war she was married to Rev. Charles Harvey, and for more than a quarter of a century walked by his side in the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. These years of companionship with this sainted man of God were precious to her memory, and she always loved to talk of their many rich experiences.

There was but one child born to their home, now Mrs. Delano C. Sipe, of near Muncie, at whose home she spent the years of her widowhood. The last years of her life were sadly afflicted, but her kindly and loving spirit manifested itself in all her suffering. Her whole life had been characterized by patience, piety, thrift and generosity, and though her body rests in the grave, she still lives —lives in memory's precious album; lives in human hearts and lives; lives with the saints and Christ and God in glory.

Funeral services were conducted from her late home by Rev. L. J. Naftzger, Presiding Elder, assisted by her pastor, E. M. Foster, on June 8th, 1907, and interment was made in Beach Grove cemetery, Muncie, Ind., where her body rests by the side of her husband.



REV. JOHN H. M'MAHON—John Hendrix McMahon, son of Archibald and Hannah McMahon, was born in Union county, Ind., September 17, 1828. He grew up at the place of his birth under the blessed and helpful influence of a pioneer Methodist home, his father's house being the stopping place of the pioneer itinerant Methodist preachers and a preaching place for many years. He removed with his father's family from Union county to Wayne county about the year 1847.

He was married to Miss Catherine E. Ream at Germantown, Ind., October 16, 1855, and to them God gave five children. Lillie ,a sweet child, was borne away by the angels from the parsonage home at Walton, April 17, 1872, and William, after graduating from DePauw University, June, 1884, died at Dublin January 4, 1888. The three living children are Mrs. L. M. Krider, wife of Rev. L. M. Krider of the North Indiana Conference; Charles M. McMahon, of Philadelphia, Pa., and Miss Effie T. McMahon, of Dublin, Ind.

Father McMahon believed it his duty to give to his children the best possible educational advantages, and he and his faithful wife made many sacrifices that they might discharge their duties in this regard, with the result that three of their children graduated at DePauw University, while the fourth was compelled to stop because of failing health. He was a father, true, and his children "rise up and call him blessed."

He was converted when but a lad, under the spreading branches of a great tree on the old home farm near Liberty, Ind., and so thorough was his conversion that he never back-slid, but remained steadfast, adding grace to grace until he reaped the full fruition of his faith in the kingdom eternal.

He received his education in the common schools of Union and Wayne counties, and at old Asbury University, in which institution he had three years' training when he was compelled to forego his cherished hope of completing the course, because of failing health.

His early plans for his life were to enter the practice of law, and with that thought in view he entered Asbury University. But God had for him another and better field of activities and service, and the Holy Spirit and the church called him into the ministry of the Gospel of Christ, and, although he knew it meant for him and his loved ones great sacrifice, when duty was made plain he hesitated not, but with faith in God went forward. He was evangelistic in his spirit and work, and revivals followed in almost every charge he served in which large numbers were converted. The church always thrived under his pastoral care.

He entered the North Indiana Conference at its session in Muncie, September 24-29, 1856, Bishop Baker presiding. He served the following charges: Deerfield, Greensboro, Windsor, Springfield, Palistine, Middletown, Hagerstown, Farmland, Lincoln, Walton, Reiffsberg, Bluffton Circuit, Ossian, Warren, Perrysburg, Harlan and Huntertown. Because of ill health he was three times compelled to change his relation to the Conference from Effective to Superannuated as follows: 1861, one year; 1866-1869, four years; 1882-1907, twenty-five years.

During all the years of his Superannuation he was intensely interested in the progress of the church and kept himself informed concerning all her varied interests and work. He was always greatly rejoiced at her successes and pained at her failures.

He was an earnest advocate of temperance and prohibition of the liquor traffic, and for many years had allied himself with the Prohibition party. To some of his friends he sometimes seemed extreme in his views, but it was only the extreme hatred he bore to the accursed traffic that made him seem thus.

During the years of his Superannuation he was always an inspiration to his pastors, helping them in every possible way. He was especially gifted in prayer, and happy was that pastor upon whom he daily invoked God's blessing, as was his custom.

He was not by nature demonstrative, but loved his family and friends with an abiding love, and but one regret ever escaped his lips as the time of his departure drew near—the regret that he must leave them.

But that lingering and fatal disease—tuberculosis of the lungs —had early fastened itself upon him, and, although he fought bravely and uncomplainingly for life, the last enemy of man, death, was victorious, and quietly he left the shores of time for the heavenly home at 6 o'clock, Thursday evening, August 1, 1907, aged 78 years, 10 months, 16 days.

The funeral services were held at Dublin, Monday afternoon, August 5, conducted by his pastor, Rev. I. R. Godwin, assisted by the following brethren of the North Indiana Conference: Presiding

Elder T. M. Guild, W. H. Peirce, J. O. Bills, U. S. A. Bridge, F. F. Thornburg, R. J. Wade, J. H. Runkle and Earl Naftzger. Bishop Halleck Floyd, of the United Brethren Church, whose home is in Dublin, and who had known the deceased for more than fifty years, spoke words of tender appreciation for the people of Dublin and vicinity. The sermon by J. H. Runkle, from John 14: 2, was a touching tribute to the memory of a man whom he declared had given him more inspiration in his ministry than any other man or woman he had ever known. The emaciated body was laid to rest in the family burying ground in the beautiful cemetery east of the village. The universal verdict is, "a good man has gone to his reward." "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

L. M. KRIDER.

MYRTLE ALMIRA FOSTER—Myrtle Almira, daughter of William and Emily Brice, was born in Wells county, Indiana, August 25th, 1876. When she was about four years of age her father died and she being the only daughter there developed an unusual attachment between her and her mother; she grew up to a splendid Christian character, well adapted to the life to which she was introduced when on June 10th, 1896, she was married to Everett M. Foster, and they began married life in the parsonage at Spencerville, Ind. For more than eleven years his home had been made happy by her careful and devoted attention and in every charge which they served she always won the love and the esteem of the people whom they served. Though ever frail of body, she possessed great energy and unusual tact, and by well organized effort kept her home in order and managed to do much in many departments of church work.

From her earliest childhood she revealed an earnest, devoted Christian character, and her life has been an example of true piety and godliness. So pure was her life, so clean her conduct that none came under the influence of her personality without being made better.

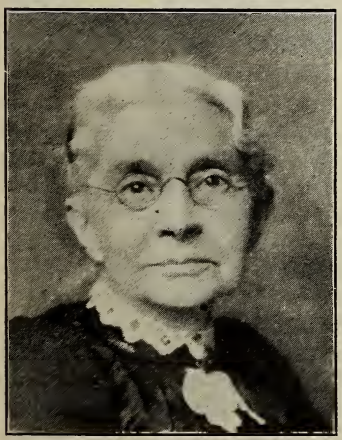
Mrs. Foster was the mother of one child, and though not permitted to enjoy its presence long here, she lived in anticipation of its love and presence over there. For the past three years she had been mother to a little homeless child upon which she lavished all the deep affection of her mother heart. One day during her last sickness she laid her hand upon the curly head of the little girl and said: "Isn't she getting nice? I wish I might live to raise her." But that was not to be her privilege. The last several years of her life were spent in much pain and sickness until at last, August 10th, 1907, her tortured body ceased to suffer and her redeemed soul went triumphantly home, to be forever with the Lord. Her last days were days of victory, and even when too weak to converse with loved ones, she often joyously exclaimed: "Blessed Jesus! Blessed Jesus!"

Funeral services were held at De Soto, Ind., August 12, 1907, under the direction of L. J. Naftzger, assisted by J. A. Ruley, D. V. Williams, C. C. Cissell, David Wells and C. J. Everson. Interment was made at Bluffton, Ind., where short services were conducted at the home of her brother, Frank Brice, under the direction of J. K. Cecil and C. U. Wade.



MARY E. LEMON, daughter of Jehiel Hull and Charlotte Jones, was born in New Jersey, June 11, 1827, died in Winchester, Ind., September 18, 1907, aged 80 years, 3 months and 7 days.

Her parents moved from New Jersey to Cincinnati when she was a child, remaining there two years. They then moved to New Port, now Fountain City, Ind. After remaining a few years they returned to Cincinnati for the purpose of educating their children. Once more they came to Indiana and settled on a farm about a mile south of Winchester, where her father and step-mother died. In a brief sketch of her family, written for the benefit of her children, she speaks in the highest terms of her step-mother.

She married James S. Ferris in Winchester, December 8, 1844, and was the mother of five children, viz: Ellen, Emily C., William R., Charles E. and James E., all of whom have preceded her to the heavenly home except Charles E.

Her husband, James S. Ferris, died September 23, 1870. April 4, 1872, she was married to Rev. O. V. Lemon, an honored member of the North Indiana Conference, and shared with him the honors and responsibilities of a minister of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. After the death of Rev. Lemon, on September 30, 1889, she returned to Winchester, where she resided until her death.

Besides her son Charles E., she is also survived by three grandchildren and one great grand-child, viz: Orland E., son of William R. and Ellen Way, Mary C. and John O., daughter and son of Charles E. and May Ferris. The great grand-child is Robert D., son of O. E. and Ida Way.

Mrs. Lemon was a woman of a strong, noble character, exercising a power for good upon all with whom she associated.

She was a kind neighbor and a faithful friend, and as a mother she was devoted to the highest interest of her children and grandchildren.

She measured up to the description of a virtuous woman given in Proverbs 31: 11-12 and 25-29.

While yet a child she united with the Methodist Episcopal church, always doing what she could to further its interests, and remaining a loyal, consistent member until she was called to join the Church Triumphant before the Throne of God. She was especially interested in the missionary work of the church.

The following selection from a prayer offered for Rev. Myron Reed, the noted minister, was treasured by her:

"Through one door man enters life and through another door he goes out. He is like a bird which enters a lighted room and escapes; whence it comes and whither it goes no one knows. Everything tells that we come from afar, that we come from on high. So our life seems to us but a thing of today. Our lives lie in the infinitude of God. We rest here but a little while we do our duty. To speak the truth, love mercy, walk humbly—that is our duty. Our systems of philosophy satisfy only the childishness of man. It is good to live where God is, and those who disappear from us are only lost to sight as at bedtime we say 'Good night.' 'Good night' we say to them that go; 'Good night and pleasant dreams.' When we die we do not lose our sleep. We only lose the dreams that trouble sleep and God says 'Good morning.'"

Death came peacefully; her work was done and like a child she went to sleep. From that sleep she awoke to behold the light of that eternal day. From that sleep she awoke to "See her Savior face to face."

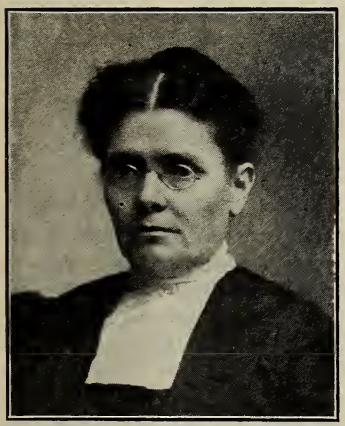
Services were conducted at her late home on South Meridian street, Thursday afternoon, September 19, at 4 o'clock by Rev. E. L. Semans, assisted by Rev. C. I. Truby. Interment by the side of her late husband in the Newcastle cemetery Friday morning after brief services by Rev. E. L. Semans.



EMMA F. FETTRO—Emma F. Fettro, daughter of Michael and Mary E. Holm, was born in Starke county, Ohio, January 1st, 1851, and fell asleep in Jesus in the parsonage home at Andrews, Ind., Oct. 12, 1907, aged 56 years, 9 months and 11 days.

Her parents removed to Indiana in the year 1855, locating in Whitley county, where they resided until the year 1871, when the family moved to Whiteside county, Ill. The following year, together with her brother Ephraim, she entered the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., taking a special course in music and English literature. At the close of her work in the university, she returned to South Whitley, where the family had returned from Illinois. Here on the 21st of February, 1875, she was united in marriage to the Rev. J. T. Fettro. At the session of the Conference held in Anderson in 1878, Brother Fettro was received on trial and appointed to the Mt. Etna charge, and together they began the arduous labors that fall to the lot of the itinerant's life in the church she loved so well, and to which she gave twenty-nine years of consecrated service. In all the charges to which her husband was assigned during these years she was his helpmate in the truest sense. Her praise is in all the field to which they were assigned. Sister Fettro was converted at the age of ten years, and it was her good fortune to be trained in a home where the love of Jesus Christ had sweet control. She came to her life work fully equipped to share joys, hopes, toils, pleasures, disappointments, and the successes of the intinerant pastorate. Always the quiet, earnest Christian, she was known in all the charges as the one who walked with God, and lived the "blessed life." Into this life, with all its heavenly fullness, she has now entered. There were given to her five children: Verner E., of Minneapolis; Ina B., wife of Dr. Thomas, of Leesburg, Ind.; Ethel H., Alvada M., and Homer J., who were still at home. The life of Sister Fettro was one of devotion to her husband, her children and the church. That life is her best monument.

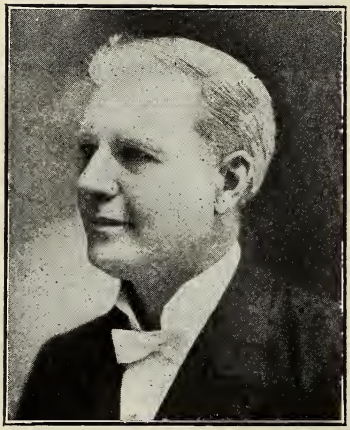
The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Andrews, Ind., and were conducted by the Rev. G. B. Work, who was assisted by the Revs. C. U. Wade, A. S. Preston, J. A. Beatty, W. H. Murray, S. Light, M. F. Stright and others. About sixteen members of the Conference attended. The burial was in the beautiful Riverside cemetery at Andrews.

G. B. WORK.



WILLIAM HENRY DANIEL—The eldest son of Thomas and Louisa Daniel, was William Henry, who was born on a farm near Richmond, Indiana, April 10, 1848. When he was about five years of age the family removed to Anderson, Indiana, and at the age of thirteen the mother died, and young William removed to Alexandria, Indiana, where he learned the trade of a miller under his uncle, William Daniel. During this period of his life he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At a very early year he felt the call into the ministry, and at the age of twenty-one he gave up his trade and entered Fort Wayne College to complete his education before entering upon the Master's work. His pure life drew near to God, and he was regarded by his student friends as a leader in the Christian life and work to which he had given himself. After completing his college work and teaching school for one year, he was admitted into membership in the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the spring of 1872. On March, 12, 1873, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma L. Birch, at the home of her parents, Presiding Elder Birch and wife, in Fort Wayne.

He served in all thirty-two years in the ministry, the charges which he served being: 1872, Fremont; 1873-4, Leo; 1875, Coesse; 1876-8, Waterloo; 1879-81, Columbia City; 1882, Auburn; 1883-4, Peru; 1885-7, Broadway, Logansport; 1888-90, Union City; 1891, Kokomo; 1892, Minnesota Conference, 1893-7, North Indiana Conference, First Church, Richmond; 1898-9, Decatur, 1900-3, Fort Wayne District.

After retiring from the ministry he lived a portion of the time on his farm near Converse, Indiana. He also served as an editorial writer on the Chicago Inter-Ocean for several months, but continuing in ill health was compelled to resign his place, and for more than a year had made his home in Decatur, Indiana. He died as a result of a prolonged attack of pernicious anemia. While the latter weeks of his life were filled with much suffering, he was at all times patient and uncomplaining, and just as the sun's last rays on February 5, 1908, lighted the day, he sank peacefully into the long sleep. Brother Daniel was a good man in all the word implies. His life was worn away in the work he loved—teaching Christ's lesson to the people. His services were felt in more than a dozen of the principal cities of northern Indiana. He was sincere, courteous and ever alert to do acts of kindness. He was broad-minded and a forceful proclaimer of the truths of the kingdom of righteousness.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Emma L. Daniel, Decatur, Ind., and their two children, Mrs. Chalmer C. Schafer, Decatur, Indiana, and Harry R. Daniel, of Chicago, and also by one sister, Mrs. Jennie Comer, of Indianapolis.

The funeral services were held from the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Decatur, Indiana, in charge of his pastor, the Rev. C. B. Wilcox, assisted by the Revs. C. U. Wade, B. S. Hollopeter, L. J. Naftzger, G. B. Work, M. C. Pittenger. Other visiting ministers present were Revs. J. C. White, G. H. Myers, C. A. Rowand, R. L. Semans, J. M. Haines, E. L. Jones. The body was interred in the beautiful Maplewood cemetery in Decatur, Indiana.

MRS. MARY M. HUTCHINSON—While many of the pastors and their wives were in the midst of gracious revivals, in which they were leading men and women to the fountain of eternal life, for the ninth time this Conference year, the death angel visited our parsonage homes. This last visit was on the 13th of February, 1908, and his call was for Mrs. Mary M. Hutchinson, to come to her eternal home. The deceased, whose maiden name was Kiblinger, was born in Ohio, April 19th, 1824, and at the time of her death her age was 83 years, 9 months and 24 days.

October 1st, 1854, she was united in marriage with Rev. James H. Hutchinson, an honored member of the North Indiana Conference. She at once assumed her duties as the wife of a Methodist itinerant, and cheerfully performed the difficult tasks this relationship in life imposed upon her during the eighteen years her husband remained in the effective ranks of the ministry.

In the spring of 1872 her husband, by reason of impaired health, was compelled to ask for a superannuated relation, which was granted. They took up their residence in Elkhart, where, as a faithful wife, she comforted and ministered unto him in the declining days of his life, until the Master called him home, January 15th, 1883. The years of her widowhood that followed until the time of her death had in them one ray of comfort that does not always find entrance into the life of a Conference widow. After the death of her husband she was privileged to make her abode in the comfortable homes of her daughter, Mrs. Warren S. Kessler, and her sister, Miss Fannie Kiblinger, of Elkhart.

Sister Hutchinson was a faithful and devout follower of the Lord Jesus Christ. She was a noble woman. She was in her place in the church when it was possible for her to be there. With these characteristic elements appearing so prominent in her daily routine of life we need not dread the sunset of her life. When it came, it brought no disappointment, for with her it was peaceful and calm, and the sky was tinted with the color of heaven. She went home to meet her sainted husband and son, Charles, who crossed over August 27th, 1884.

The funeral services were conducted from her late home on Saturday, February 15th, 1908, by Rev. F. T. Simpson, assisted by her pastor, Rev. L. A. Beeks. The body was interred in the cemetery at Elkhart, Ind. May the memory of this blessed woman remain to cheer and comfort her loved ones, until all shall be united in the heavenly home.

The members of all the classes will notify, in writing, the Chairman of the Board whether they have carefully perused "the books to be read."

F. G. Browne, C. King and C. W. Smith will conduct the examination of local preachers who are candidates for orders. These examinations will occur at the seat of the Annual Conference on the day preceding the opening of the session.

The Mid-Year Institute will be held October 14-19, 1907. All the examiners and students are expected to be in attendance, from the beginning to the close of the session. All the work of the examination should be done at the Institute. Only extreme necessity will be considered a valid excuse for absence.

The present course of study does not require syllabi.

All candidates for examination should carefully read pages 430-433 of the Discipline of 1904.

APPOINTMENT RECORD

The following Record is a continuation of that in the Monson Manual, and is corrected to April 1, 1908, including the changes made during the year, as reported by the Presiding Elders to the Secretary. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" and "19" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in these two centuries. In some instances no record is made of the services in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.

Abbreviations—Loc, Located; Miss, Missionary; S, in School; Sn, Superannuated; Sy, Supernumerary; Sup, Supply.

SECRETARY.

EXPLANATORY—To find the length of a pastorate on a charge from the following record, it will be necessary to take into account BOTH the FIRST and LAST year of appointment. 02-6 means five years of service on that charge.

JOURNAL LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE

This space, by the vote of both the Lay and the Ministerial Conference, was to have been used for publishing the proceedings of the Lay Conference, but the Secretary of the North Indiana Conference, and the publishers of the Minutes, after using all possible efforts, have failed to secure from the Secretary of the Lay Conference a copy of its Journal for publication.

Dr. Miles'
Restorative Nervine

can be relied upon in all cases of Nervous Exhaustion, brought on by over-work or mental strain.
It allays irritation.
It assists the Nerve Cells to generate nerve force.
Its soothing influence upon the nerves brings restful sleep—nature's rest period so essential to the tired, worn out mind and body.
It does not contain narcotic opiates.
See reward below.

For Headache, Neuralgia

or any pain or distress, you will find relief by taking
DR. MILES' ANTI-PAIN PILLS.
They are sold by all druggists, and you may try either of these remedies on the positive guarantee that if the first bottle or package does not benefit, your druggist will return your money. We repay the druggist the full retail price, so it is to his interest to refund if called upon to do so.

$5,000 REWARD

Will be paid by the Dr. Miles Medical Co. to any person who can find one atom of opium, chloral, morphine, cocaine, ether or chloroform, or any of their combinations or derivatives, in any form in any of Dr. Miles' Remedies. This reward applies only to goods purchased in the open market in original packages, which are unopened and have not been tampered with. The reward is offered because some unscrupulous persons are making false statements about these remedies.

CO-OPERATION---That's the Word.

Nothing is better, unless it be MORE CO-OPERATION.
The Co-Operative Plan of Insurance of the Methodist Episcopal Church is the ideal mutual plan.
During the nearly ten years of its existence it has had a most remarkable growth and rendered a most important service--of which Methodism has reason to be proud.
The extent and efficiency of this service can be increased by more co-operation--by more churches participating, all of which will get benefits while assisting in extending benefits.

MODERN COMFORT OF LIVING

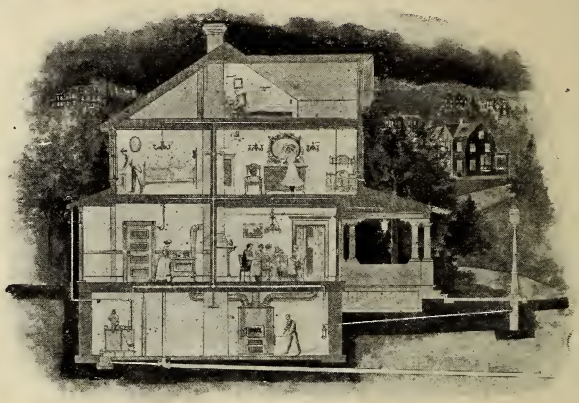
"SUNLIGHT-ON-TAP" IN EVERY ROOM

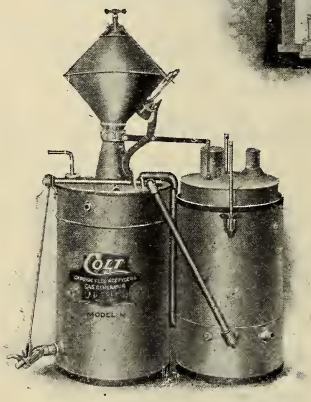
It is no longer necessary to live in the age of the stage coach--the days of crude homes and discomfort

You now have the opportunity to make your place modern--to give it twentieth century convenience--and this with comfort added in living under a light vastly superior to electricity, because almost daylight in quality, yet which costs less than light from the hot, unhealthful and eyestrain kerosene lamps.

No one investment you could make in the place would bring so much comfort for so little cost.

The piping and fixtures which are part of every lighting system and necessary to complete a house are a permanent improvement to the property, providing convenience and style in every room, and saving all the labor of kerosene lamps.





And because of the economy of the light itself, the generator is a desirable investment, giving greater value for the money spent for light, beside saving the expense of chimney breakage and refinishing of walls and ceilings disfigured with kerosene grime.

Our light is clean--smokeless, sootless--odorless.

Do you not want your place as nice looking--as convenient, comfortable, healthful and modern as you can make it?

Then send us the enclosed, and let us tell you all about modern acetylene light, which places all this within your easy reach, and about the high-class Colt generator--the generator that the Government Lighthouse Establishment has passed upon, ordered--and used for years. Just the mere sending of a postal card will place all this before you.

WHY NOT DO BUSINESS WITH LUX.

I AM the only Typewriter Dealer in the United States that offers such liberal propositions.

I will rent you a first-class, late model typewriter, any make, for $3.00 per month. If, in the course of six months, you decide to purchase a machine, I will deduct all rent paid from the price of machine purchased.

Why not own a writing machine? I will sell you a machine on small monthly payments.

STUDENTS: Don't lose all you have gained. Rent a machine and keep in practice.

BUSINESS MEN: Make the rental of a machine a monthly expense item. Don't toil with a pen when you can rent a typewriter for so little. The satisfaction of a legible letter is worth the price. It gives tone to your business that cannot be obtained otherwise.

Write me for prices on any machine you may want to purchase, new or second-hand. I have the largest stock in the State.

The Woman's College of Baltimore

Founded 1885 Opened 1888

JOHN FRANKLIN GOUCHER, - - President

Situation The Woman's College of Baltimore is situated near the northern boundaries of the city of Baltimore, Md., in one of the best residential sections, one hundred and fifty feet above tide-water.

Buildings The buildings are seven in number—three devoted to instruction and administration, three to residence. All are new, cheerful and commodious, erected particularly for their respective purposes, and containing the conveniences devised by modern architectural science. They are heated from a battery of boilers and lighted by electricity from the new power house of the College.

Educational Equipment Ample and thoroughly furnished laboratories facilitate study of the natural sciences by modern methods. The apparatus is of recent type, carefully selected. Maps, charts, engravings, photographs and cabinets of specimens and of objects illustrating natural history and the development of the race are liberally provided. There is a good, modern working library of about ten thousand volumes, while half a million volumes are at the service of students in public and institutional libraries easily accessible.

Course of Study The course of study includes prescribed subjects and elective subjects in about equal proportions. Students who wish to follow particular lines of study are enabled to lay a solid foundation for subsequent specialization. Elective courses are offered in Greek, Latin, French, Spanish, Italian, German, English Literature, including Old and Middle English, Mathematics, Geology, Mineralogy, Physics, Chemistry, Botany, Biology, History, Economics and Sociology. Upon the completion of a course usually requiring four years, the student is graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Physical Training and Hygiene Every candidate for the degree is required to pursue a course in physiology and hygiene. A commodious modern gymnasium provides systematic exercises according to the Ling, or Swedish, method under careful training and supervision of a physician specially prepared in mechanical therapeutics. Halls are provided for basket ball and courts for tennis and similar sports. Care is taken to prevent excess in these exercises.

Entrance Requirements These are the usual requirements of Eastern colleges and should be met by graduates of good high schools in which at last one language in addition to Latin is embraced in the course of study. Certificates of preparation which furnish full details will be considered when offered by schools previously accredited and, if found sufficient, will be accepted as substitutes for examination, otherwise examinations will be necessary. Certificates of the College Entrance Examination Board are accepted.

Numbers The College is now (1907) entering upon its twentieth session. Its alumnæ number seven hundred and ten. Recent graduating classes have numbered from sixty to seventy-nine. The freshman class numbers, and for the present is limited to, one hundred and twenty-five. The students are from all parts of the country. All religious denominations are liberally represented.

Application for Admission Program of the College courses, regulations for the government of the residence halls, blank forms of application and information upon special subjects will be promptly furnished upon request to
